Formal Velvets in Smart Colors

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FASHIONABLE velvet, and fashionable indeed it is, has gone high-color. Not that the style prestige of black velvet is challenged, not at all. To defend the supremacy of handsome black velvet in the mode never a need will there be. Its claim to sovereignty among formal weaves in the fabric realm will go unchallenged through the ages.

However, many of the new velvets are gorgeously colorful. They abound in rich reds, purples, greens, sapphire and golden hues.

The message of color is eloquently told in the trio of formal velvet modes pictured. Each is a Paris creation, for French couturiers are most enthusiastic in regard to the importance of velvet in the mid-winter style picture. For the striking evening ensemble as worn by the smartly costumed lady of fashion seated, Bruyere employs a magnificent stiff velvet in deep blue. The jacket is decorated with motifs cut from the wide gold galon such as bands the sleeves. The blouse is of gold lame, likewise the chic and youthful off-face hat.

Dramatically colorful is the gown to the right in the picture. Dark green cellophane shot silk velvet fashions this molded-to-the-figure evening dress. The shoulder straps and large bow on the corsage are of red velvet. Clashed in the hands of this dark-haired beauty is a floor length cape which Molyneux styles of velvet striped in green and red shades to complete the ensemble color scheme. In the mode to the left, also by Molyneux, the new formal evening cape with its long graceful and stately trailing lines interprets the very latest silhouette at its best. This voluminous wrap is of sapphire blue double-faced velvet. Its color tunes beautifully to the gown which is done in perverche blue and silver lame.

Speaking of the color glory of the new velvets calls to mind a superb evening ensemble (not illustrated) which Lelong creates of cerise red velvet, a fabric woven like a semi-transparent bagheera. Its lack-luster surface and the fact that it is so sheer one can see through it almost as if it were chiffon, add infinitely to its charm. The dress is fashioned with utmost simplicity—sophisticated simplicity according to modern interpretation. It has one of the new inch-high band collars and buttons demurely down the front to below the waistline. Decidedly form-revealing is this dress so suavely it is fitted to the figure. The piece de resistance is its cape of the same dull-surfaced velvet, the majestic floor-trailing lines of which are that imposing they quite overawe one. Capes of generous flowing lines such as this stand for all that is smartest and newest in way of the formal evening wrap. We almost forgot to tell you about the collar of precious brown fur that completes this costume. It is ingeniously attached to the dress although it appears to be part of the cape.

Now that we are talking about smart evening wraps, here is something worth stretching your budget to acquire. Every woman who loves to dress will be wanting one. It's the enchanting little velvet jackets with revers embroidered in colored stones which have only just recently made their debut. They are fascinating.

Secret of Pre-Inca Dyes Revealed in Mummy Packs

Dyestuffs and cosmetics of Paracas, old pre-Inca site in Peru, have been studied by a professor of industrial chemistry at Santa Fe university, Argentina. Rich textiles found in Paracas mummy packs rival the finest Old world tapestries. Because of their brightness after many centuries' burial in the earth, speculation was aroused as to coloring matters used. Ancient "elbow grease," that is to say, careful workmanship rather than miraculous dyestuffs, account for the results, analyses disclose. In their descriptions of dyeing methods used by the Incas of Conquest times, who probably inherited their knowledge from people of Paracas and other predecessors, the Spanish monks enumerated ten good vegetable dyes in use, although most Inca work was also done with indigo and cochineal on naturally tinted llama wool. In dyeing intermediate shades on cotton, one color was dyed over another to obtain desired tones. The Incas knew the use of mordants. Their textiles were the envy of the Spaniards.—Montreal Herald.

Household Questions

Ferns grow and thrive in suspended window baskets if soil is kept moist and not allowed to dry out.

Keep a roll of glued paper and a ball of twine in your kitchen to use when tying and labeling bundles.

Adhesive tape may be quickly and painlessly removed from the skin if softened with benzine. Saturate a sponge with benzine and wash tape with it.

Place a loaf of cake as near the center of oven as possible. If placed close to the firebox one side of cake will rise higher than the other and is likely to burn.

Chilling makes rolled cookie dough firm and easy to roll without the addition of extra flour.

Do not keep cyclamens in too warm a room. Too much heat causes the blossoms to lose their firmness. Keep soil about the roots quite damp.

No Need to Suffer "Morning Sickness"

"Morning sickness"—is caused by an acid condition. To avoid it, acid must be offset by alkalis—such as magnesia.

Why Physicians Recommend Milnesia Wafers

These mint-flavored, candy-like wafers are pure milk of magnesia in solid form—the most pleasant way to take it. Each wafer is approximately equal to a full adult dose of liquid milk of magnesia. Chewed thoroughly, then swallowed, they correct acidity in the mouth and throughout the digestive system and insure quick, complete elimination of the waste matters that cause gas, headaches, bloated feelings and a dozen other discomforts.

Milnesia Wafers come in bottles of 20 and 48, at 35c and 60c respectively, and in convenient tins for your handbag containing 12 at 20c. Each wafer is approximately one adult dose of milk of magnesia. All good drug stores sell and recommend them.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly
Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.
