WHY THE FUSS?

In the days prior to 1860 the whaler was in his prime. Whaling vessels were equipped for long voyages, often being away from their home port five, seven, eight and even ten years.

A story is told of an old whaling skipper all ready to leave on a voyage. Just as they were about to sail his mate tapped him on the shoulder and said, "Sorry, captain, but your wife is crying her eyes out on the dock."

"What's the matter with her?"
"She says you didn't kiss her good-by."
"Well," said the captain, "I am only going to be away for two years."

TOODLE-OO!

"Why didn't you return Charles' ring and presents."
"I regard them as spoils of war taken in my first engagement."
