1—Col. Rafael Franco, who has been made provisional president of Paraguay following the revolution that caused the resignation of Eusebio Ayala. 2—Huge drum gates of Norris dam which were closed by President Roosevelt, marking the completion of the dam proper. 3—New York policeman subduing a brick-throwing rioter during the strike of building service workers.

France Mans Her Concrete Frontier Defenses

This is one unit of the famous "Maginot line" built by France along her eastern frontier. The system of concrete casements and underground passages was fully manned immediately after Germany sent troops into the Rhineland in violation of the Locarno pact and the Versailles treaty.

BARBER IS CHAMPION

Jacob Ankrom, a Detroit barber, who won the national amateur three-cushion billiard title in that city from a field of veterans. Ankrom, who took the game up only seven years ago, did not become a Class A player until last year, and his victory came as something of an upset.

Millions of Amoebas

There are thousands and thousands of amoebas in every stagnant pool, some of them millions of years old—older than the very lakes in which they live. If a single one of them could tell what had happened since he was "born" he might tell of a time, thousands of years ago, when the earth was covered with ice, or when there were only monster fish and no men.

The Garibaldi

Many ladies must remember wearing, in the 70's of last century, an article of dress known as a "garibaldi," writes George Eyre-Tood in the Glasgow Herald. As a mere man can remember it, this was a sort of shirt blouse, buttoned down the front, and ending with a belt at the waist. It was not a garment merely named after the famous Italian guerilla chief, but was a reproduction of the garment actually worn by him, as shown in his portraits. The vogue of the wearing of the garibaldi was a result of the furore of enthusiasm for the Italian patriot which swept over Scotland when he paid it a visit in 1863. Following a wildly romantic career as sailor, filibuster, drover, shipbroker, teacher of mathematics and naval commander, he had freed Sicily from the tyranny of the Bourbons.
