To the Editor:

After reading your news item regarding the report of the Grand Jury of Clatsop County on March 26, in which they charge me with negligence, I would like to make some comment on same, and ask you to please give me space in your valuable paper.

The strike was called last May and affected about 2300 men, such as loggers, sawmill hands, truck drivers and longshoremen. I want to challenge this Grand Jury to show where there was ever any violence in any sawmill, logging camp, dock or highway in this county prior to March 7, 1936. Not even the Crown logging camp.

One man was beat up in Astoria, and I arrested three of the assailants, one was acquitted in the Justice Court; and the other two were acquitted in the Circuit Court. Three men were arrested in Seaside by the city police for beating some Crown men; two were acquitted and the third case is now pending. The sheriff and state police have been called on several other beat-up cases, only to find that the injured person would not sign a complaint or could not identify the assailant.

During the strike last summer the sheriffs, deputies, state police and state militia of Washington were called out at Aberdeen and the merchants of Tacoma petitioned the governor to recall them—which he did. In Oregon the sheriffs and deputies and state police were called out at Forest Grove, at Dee, Bridal Veil, and Portland, with the same results as in Washington—blood shed a plenty. Also a $20,000 damage suit pending against a certain sheriff.

How does Clatsop County compare with other counties, here and in Washington? Al Smith says "Let's look at the record". I had one deputy and he and myself visited all sawmills and logging camps many times, and removed pickets from private property, and never had an argument at any time with any of the men.

A word with you Mr. Grand Jury.

You saw fit to blame me for this trouble, and I want to say to you that this is none of your business. The governor sent three men here to investigate, men of high standing, and I failed to see by their report any blame attached to the sheriff. Did you?

As to the trouble March 7, Tom Jackson, manager of the Crown Camp, never called this office. One of his men phoned to my deputy to come out in the morning early on the picket line (half a mile from camp). He and the state police were there and later Jackson came. They did not know that men had already gone to camp; even Jackson did not know.

GET RID OF PAIN

You could have exact, accurate knowledge of what causes pain and illness. The reason for bodily ills goes much farther back than effect.

Treating the effect is only temporary. It is our belief and practice that the cause must be known and done away with before permanent health is possible.

We offer to find the cause of your trouble without charge.
