

SOCIETY NEWS - CLUBS - FRATERNAL

MABEL ANDERSON MARRIES NEAL BERG

Miss Mabel Anderson, primary teacher in the Washington school for the past two years, and Mr. Neal Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Berg of Portland, were married in Portland Saturday evening, April 4, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson.

The wedding service was read at 8 o'clock by Pastor Groves of the Methodist church in the presence of members of the immediate families. A reception followed attended by sixty five guests. Julia Keasey was present from Vernonia.

The bride wore a tea-rose lace gown. Her bouquet was fashioned of gardenias, lillies of the valley and forget-me-nots. She was unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Berg, who will make their home in Portland, have postponed their wedding trip till summer, when they will spend a month in Chicago. Mrs. Berg will complete her year as teacher here.

Mrs. Berg is a graduate of Oregon Normal school and has also attended the University of Oregon. Mr. Berg, who is an electrical engineer, is a graduate of Oregon State college and is affiliated with Sigma Phi fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Berg were guests of honor at a dinner at Hilaire's in Portland Sunday. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Berg was complimented with a bridal shower given in one of the Washington school rooms on the afternoon of March 23, by Miss Julia Keasey and Miss Grace White. The invitational list included the lady faculty members and wives of teachers.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET SUCCESSFUL

The father and son banquet given by the Betty Brite circle of the Evangelical Missionary society in the social hall of the church Thursday evening, April 2 was a distinct success in every way. Prof. Jones of Willamette university, Salem, was the principal speaker for the evening.

Ninety men and boys were in attendance.

Judd Greenman, toast master, introduced a number of county candidates for the primary elections who were present. Loren Kostur paid a "Tribute to Fathers," and Rev. H. R. Scheuerman responded with a tribute to sons.

A musical program included two piano solos by Buby Condit and two vocal solos by Elsie Duncan, accompanied by Miss Condit; Jeanette John and Milton Scheuerman sang "That Silver Haired Daddy of Mine."

An elaborate turkey dinner was served. The decorations of the room carried out a yellow and green color scheme. Daffodils were used on the tables.

STEWARDSHIP IS E. M. S. THEME

"Stewardship" was the theme for the monthly program of the Evangelical Missionary society, which met in the church Wednesday afternoon, April 1.

A playlet entitled "Tithers and Offerings," directed by Mrs. E.

J. Douglass was presented with Mrs. C. A. Malmsten, Mrs. H. R. Scheuerman, Mrs. A. W. Sauer, Jeanette John and Opal Scheuerman participating.

Mrs. McGilvray reviewed the first chapter of the society's new mission study book, "Men and Women in Far Horizons." Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. C. A. Malmsten gave reports of a recent-missionary rally which they attended in Portland. Rev. H. R. Scheuerman led the devotions.

Saturday, April 18, was set as the date for the annual birthday luncheon. A pot luck luncheon will be served, after which the names of birthday friends will be revealed and new names drawn.

Refreshments were served by the Pollyanna circle.

LEGION AUXILIARY GUEST DAY CELEBRATED

Guest day of the American Legion Auxiliary was observed at the home of Mrs. H. E. McGraw Tuesday afternoon.

Following the regular business meeting at which plans for the high school senior banquet were discussed, a social hour was enjoyed. Cake and coffee were served.

The guests included Mrs. Margaret Dunlap, Mrs. Phil Peterson, Mrs. John Luther, Mrs. Lloyd Cummings, Mrs. A. L. Kullander and Mrs. George Welch.

C. M. S. MEETS AT MRS. LANGE'S

The Missionary society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Frank Lange last Friday afternoon for regular business and a missionary program on South America.

Mrs. W. O. Livingstone led the devotional service. Those participating in the program were Mrs. R. A. Simmons, Mrs. E. M. Henderson, Mrs. Clifford Fowler, and Mrs. Harry Woodruff, who was leader for the day.

Mrs. Lange served refreshments

ELSIE MCDONALD PARTYS AT COUNTRY HOME

Miss Elsie McDonald entertained at her country home Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Todd, of Glendale, Calif. T. J. Romano, who is attending Harvard University, and is spending his spring vacation visiting his friends and relatives on the Pacific Coast. C. P. Pearce and mother of Palm Springs, Calif. and B. A. Presidio of Madera, Calif.

Those present were the honored guests Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Mr. Romano, Mr. Pearce and mother, and Mr. Presidio, also H. R. Longworth, S. A. Mooskian, Goldie Nickell, June Sprague, Peggy Ann King, H. E. Stevens.

Jimmy and Doyle Carter all of Portland, and Gloria and Josephine Schnieder of Rainier, Geo. and Frank Piper and Katherine Barry of Vernonia, Mr. and Mrs. B. McDonald, and family and he hostess.

The evening was spent playing bridge, high score being held by Gloria Schnieder, consolation by H. E. Stevens. Several musical numbers by Mr. Roman, Mr. Pearce, Goldie Nickell, Josephine Schnieder and the hostess were really appreciated by those present. Luncheon was served at a late hour.

O. E. S. HONORS TWO MEMBERS

Mrs. F. D. Macpherson and Mrs. L. H. Dewey were honored at a party given by members of Nehalem chapter, O. E. S. Wednesday evening, April 1, following the regular work of the order. The occasion was arranged as a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Macpherson, who moved to Portland Saturday, and as a birthday compliment to Mrs. Dewey, worthy matron of the chapter.

During the meeting plans were made to entertain a district meeting of the Eastern Star here, April 23, at which time the Clatskanie and Rainier chapters will participate.

MRS. HARTWICK ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. Frank Hartwick entertained members of the Queen of Hearts club at an Easter luncheon last Friday afternoon. At bridge which followed, Mrs. Ben Brickel held high score and Mrs. Glen Hawkins, a guest, won second high honors.

Mrs. Roland D. Eby, Mrs. Loel Roberts, Mrs. Jack Nance, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. William Briot and Mrs. George Plumb were the others present.

MRS. J. W. BROWN ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

To compliment Mrs. David O. Bennett of St. Helens, Mrs. J. W. Brown entertained with two tables of bridge Monday evening. Mrs. Bennett held high score following play, and Mrs. W. M. Henderson, second high. Others present were Nan Crary and members of the G. E. Club including Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. W. J. Armitage, Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mrs. H. G. Sandon, and Mrs. Virgil Powell.

MRS. C. VAN BLARICOM'S 93 BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

In honor of Mrs. Catherine Van Blaricom on her ninety-third birthday, her daughter, Mrs. Emma Weed, and granddaughter, Mrs. E. E. Garner entertained a group of friends at their home

Thursday afternoon, April 2.

Those present included Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Mrs. A. W. Sauer, Mrs. H. R. Scheuerman, Mrs. Verne Mowe, Mrs. Anna Christensen, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Mrs. Dan Richards, Mrs. Raymond Tichenor, Mrs. A. R. Stanton, Mrs. Harry Wilson and Mrs. Henry John.

On Sunday a second birthday celebration was held in Mrs. Van Blaricom's honor at the home of her grandson, Sheriff Oscar G. Weed, in St. Helens. Five generations were present.

REBEKAH MEMBERS VISIT ANOTHER LODGE

The following members of Mountain Heart Rebekah lodge attended a meeting at Clatskanie on Monday evening. Mesdames Ruby Biggs, Dorcas Bays, Sally Brown, Kate McDonald, Irene Spencer, Solomonson, Ella Cline, Selma Webb, Miss Erickson and Bob Spencer.

They presented the three links to the Clatskanie lodge.

The hostess lodge gave a program and served refreshments.

MRS. ARMITAGE IS G. E. CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. W. J. Armitage entertained the G. E. Club at her home last Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. W. M. Henderson.

A shower of handkerchiefs was presented to the honor guest by the club members, and a potted plant was the gift of the hostess. Quite appropriately, Mrs. Henderson won high score at bridge. Mrs. Virgil Powell held second high score.

Others present were Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mrs. H. E. McGraw, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. H. G. Sandon and Mrs. Earl Smith.

ELLA CAYWOOD AND EVERETT WOOD MARRIED

Ella Caywood and Everett Wood were married Saturday in Vancouver, Wash. The bride is a daughter of the late James B. Wright, one of the oldest pioneers in the Nehalem valley, and the groom is the son of another pioneer, Albert Wood.

The couple will live on the old Wood farm.

INVITATIONS ISSUED FOR JUNIOR PROM

The annual Junior Prom will be given in the high school gym at 8:30 pm Friday, April 17. The juniors have engaged the Ivan Koeben dance band and their negro entertainers, "Three Shades of Darkness".

Invitation is extended to all high school students and alumni. About 400 other invitations have been sent.

W. R. C. TO GIVE BENEFIT SOCIAL

The W. R. C. is to give a benefit basket social in the Odd Fellows hall tonight at 8 pm. There will be a short program, to which admission is free.

All who bring baskets are requested to specify whether married or single.

MRS. LOFGREN ENTERTAINS CLASS

Mrs. Bernice Lofgren entertained the members of her Americanization class at a party in the schoolhouse at Pittsburg April 1. Besides the members of the class and residents of the Pittsburg camp Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lindsay and Dr. and Mrs. Brown were guests.

The Christian church interior is being redecorated and when finished will present a very pleasing appearance.

Fine hand-worked pillow cases. $1.25. Deborah circle. Mrs. E. R. Estey, sec. House 19, O.-A. hill. Phone 126. Adv

Thor Gronbeck has been ill with the flu for about a week and unable to drive his stage. He went back in his route yesterday morning. Mrs. Gronbeck, who also has been ill, is able to be around again.

The Most Beautiful Refrigerators

Built

THE NEW 1936

Leonards & Shelvadors

NOW ON DISPLAY

$99.50 to $199.50

See the New Beautiful

1936 THOR

GENTLE HAND WASHING ACTION

NOW ON DISPLAY

FREE— 30 boxes of White King soap and 1 years service if purchased at once. Supply of soap limited. Hurry!

Big Shipment of Beautiful Davenport and Chairs, just arrived. LOOK THEM OVER

Geo. G. PATERSON

FURNITURE AND RADIO STORE

Vernonia, Oregon

Phone 801

To our many Customers who we have served in our mechanical department in the past we have added to our staff Mr. Rex Pemble, who is considered one of the best auto mechanics in the game. Come in and get acquainted.

Vernonia Auto Co.

The Best Equipped Shop in Columbia Co.

Ask your Grocer for . . .

Vernonia Bakery BREAD

Union Made

A large variety of Hostess Cakes and Cookies Also Home-Made Cakes and Cookies

Vernonia Bakery