

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Gen. Edward Rydz-Smigly, who has been proclaimed Poland's first citizen, a post which virtually drops him into the boots of the late Marshal Pilsudski. 2—Tanks rumble through Spain's cities, as the leftist government tries to crush the military revolt. 3—Veterans of the Second Division dedicate a memorial to their fallen comrades in Washington, D. C.

Civilians and Their Dogs Parade in Gas Masks

Tokyo.—Civilians and their dogs parade through the streets of the Japanese capital wearing gas masks in a demonstration of the preparedness of the civilian population for a gas attack when and if the next war comes.

Mother Dog Adopts Litter of Pigs

When all but one of her puppies died, Lille von Perbock, an aristocratic Dobermann Pinscher, of Hollywood, Calif., just had to lavish her mother love on something. She adopted a litter of red duroc pigs and all is now serene in her unusual family.

GOV. LANDON'S AID

Lola Williams, for 14 years the secretary to former Vice President Charles Curtis, is now in Topeka as a new member of Gov. Alfred M. Landon's secretariat. She is a native of Kansas and is considered one of the most capable of America's politically-experienced secretaries.

51-Foot Yawl Wins Honolulu Race

"You're first to finish!" James Wilder, judge, tells James Flood (left) owner of the 51-foot yawl Dorade, at the end of the longest yacht race in America—2,225 miles from California to Honolulu. Hawaiian leis cover Flood's tanned shoulders. The Dorade made the trip in 13 days, 7 hours, 20 minutes, 4 seconds elapsed time, being just 14 minutes ahead of the next arrival.

GIVES ALL TO CHARITY

In a momentous decision based on "divine inspiration," Elsie Janis, one-time popular stage star and "sweetheart of the A. E. F." during the World war, has disclosed plans to dispose of her worldly possessions and to devote the proceeds and her life to local charities.

TRAIN CRIER CHAMP

In a Train Criers contest in connection with Railroad week in Chicago recently, J. A. Berti, an employee of the Milwaukee railroad, was adjudged the "Caruso" of all train callers. He is shown here trying out a few more calls shortly after he had been presented with the championship cup. The contest was sponsored by the Chicago Junior Association of Commerce.

HELD BY NAZI

Arrested in Hamburg more than a year ago on a charge of possessing anti-Nazi documents, Lawrence Simpson, seaman on the U. S. S. Manhattan, has been placed on trial by a secret Nazi court. The charge, however, has been changed to that of "illegal export of money."

FILLS FARLEY'S POST

William W. Howes, who is acting postmaster general during the leave of absence of Postmaster General James A. Farley, who is directing the Democratic party's campaign to re-elect President Roosevelt. Mr. Howes' regular post is first assistant postmaster general.

Restricted Immigration
The old Greek colonies restricted immigration.