WALLACE McCRAE IS MARRIED IN EUGENE

(Eugene Register-Guard)

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Meisel, daughter of Mrs. Roy B. Wilcox, to Wallace W. McCrae of Vernonia, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrae of Monmouth, was solemnized at four o'clock at the First Congregational church, Sunday afternoon, August 23, Rev. Milton S. Weber officiating.

Large baskets of gladioli and palms stood at the altar, which was flanked on either side with tall candelabra with lighted tapers. Small baskets of flowers were placed at each window and gladioli and fern formed the pew decorations.

Miss Marjorie Scobert played the Lohengrin processional and the Mendelssohn recessional on the organ, and preceding the ceremony Mrs. Edna Leslie Pearson sang "At Dawning" accompanied on the violin by Fred Dallas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Roy B. Wilcox, wore a dress of white silk lace over satin, made with a standing collar and short train. The dress was trimmed with rows of small buttons from the front of the collar to the waistline and from the wrist to the elbow on the sleeves. A halo finger-tip veil was worn. For her flowers she carried a bouquet of white roses and swansonia, tied with satin ribbon.

Mrs. Frank Meyer, Jr., of Portland was matron of honor, and wore an aqua blue taffeta dress made with full skirt and jacket and a picture hat of matching material. Her flowers were pink roses, asters and phlox.

Ernest Calef of Monmouth was best man for Mr. McCrae and the ushers were Glen Halliday of Monmouth and Fred Calef of Dallas.

Mrs. Roy B. Wilcox, the bride's mother, wore a seal grey crepe dress trimmed with lace and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception for relatives and out-of-town guests was held at the Wilcox home following the service. Mrs. George A. Simon, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Josephine Enright poured, and Mrs. John Jensen cut the cake. Mrs. Hugh Hampton assisted at the table. Serving were Misses Edith Clement, Jo Skene, Arleta Davis, Dorothy Jensen and Marjorie Scobert.

The couple left for a wedding trip to California, the bride wearing a tile color silk crepe suit with brown accessories. They will reside in Vernonia where Mr. McCrae is athletic coach in the high school.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCrae are graduates of the University of Oregon where she is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. Mr. McCrae is a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity at Willamette University.
