The Mist Garage has changed hands. We did not learn to whom Mr. Day, the former owner, sold his business. The Days are moving to the late E. T. Wallace farm, now owned by Joe Chermak.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hansen and daughter, LaVerne, left last Monday by automobile for San Francisco for a short vacation.

Mrs. Geo. Jones went to Portland a week ago last Wednesday to await room in the hospital for an operation.

The W.M.S. met Wednesday, a week ago at the home of Mrs. Fred Siegenthaler. Seventeen ladies were present and also Mr. Cuthers from one of the churches in Clatskanie. During the afternoon refreshments were served. The next meeting place will be at the home of Mrs. L. E. Knowles, the second Wednesday in November.

A. R. Mells was a Portland visitor Tuesday of last week, going up with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sundland.

Mrs. Ralph George and Gloria were in Clatskanie recently.

Mrs. Geo. Kalassee was a Portland visitor the middle of last week.

Mrs. Austin Dowling and Bernara were in Clatskanie Saturday afternoon a week ago.

Double Trouble Strikes Home

RIVERVIEW—Another one of those double-trouble affairs struck Riverview Friday. This time it was the Albert Schmidlin home. Mr. Schmidlin who has suffered for three weeks from shingles was ordered that morning by his physician to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for examination by a nerve specialist and for treatment and in the afternoon, Mrs. Schmidlin's two brothers-in-law, Joe Able of Portland and Johnnie VanDomelen of Roy came up to tell her that her brother, Ervin Murry, of Roseburg had passed away the day before. Double pneumonia had caused his death. Mrs. Schmidlin accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Braun, and son, Billie, and Mrs. Snyder of St. Paul to Portland Sunday to see her husband who was resting quite comfortably. Mr. Schmidlin's many friends hope for his speedy recovery. We extend sympathy to Mrs. Schmidlin in her hour of bereavement.

A new Rototiller was delivered to Walter Moore Wednesday. Mr. Moore is very busy getting acquainted with it and destroying his wild daisy beds.

Nate Huntley of Carlton brought his nephews, Russell Toll and Tom Teal, to the Louis Huntley home Sunday. The afternoon was spent hunting, but no game was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Norvell of Seaside came Monday for an overnight visit at the Walter Moore home.

Dr. and Mrs. Powell B. Logan of Portland were Thursday guests at the W. J. Nichols home. Chas. Ratkie, Art Owens and C. N. Russell have had the Logan bulldozer at work on their acreages during the past week.

Mrs. W. E. Sullivan enjoyed a visit Sunday with her brother, Jack Wolf, of the merchant marine, who is here on a leave of indefinite length due to the maritime strike. She had not seen Jack for four years. The Sullivans recently came from Arizona where their rains come every 12 or 14 months, but they say they don't mind the Oregon rains.

A trio of hunters, Tommy Hall, Ward Plummer and Edwin Justice, came in late Saturday with a two-point deer which they felt they had doubly earned as they had to carry it more than two miles to get it on wheels.

Shingle Mill Starts Work

KEASEY — Ellis Lindsay of Dayton stayed four days with his brother, Orin Lindsay. They went deer hunting.

Albert Krieger has started his shingle mill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pope of Portland are spending a week with Mrs. Pope's sister, Mrs. Otto Bittner.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bittner called on Herb Counts and family Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lindsay and family visited with relatives at Newberg and Dayton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen of Gervais visited with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bittner a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Counts spent

Thursday evening at the Darrell De Vaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krieger and Mrs. H. A. DeWitt were in Portland last week.

Harry Keith of Vernonia called on Mr. and Mrs. Herb Counts Sunday.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

On Playing the Fiddle Badly

A favorite recreation in our town is getting together in one or another's home and making music. There's somebody at the piano; a guitar; a fiddle player; and Molly Birtles even has a harp!

What comes out isn't the best music in the whole world. In fact, a lot of it is downright bad. But nobody even thinks to question or to criticize.

Because the spirit of harmony is there—harmony between folks who like each other's company, who enjoy the simple, homey atmosphere —with nothing more exciting than old songs, and a glass of moderate beer or cider.

From where I sit, it's a heap more important to be a poor fiddle player, than not to play at all. More important to be a part of the American scene—with its community music, home entertainment, friendly glass of beer—than to hold out for professional perfection. (Besides, I like to play the fiddle—even badly!)
