

Quick Stitchery for the Home "Artist"

Pattern 1212

Here's a famous painting—"The Angelus," to reproduce in quick stitchery. You've no idea what a charming picture will result as you stitch away in wool or rope silk, but you're assured a speedy finish due to the plain background. So send for your pattern today and get started on this fascinating piece of needlework. You'll want to frame it, when it's finished.

Pattern 1212 contains a transfer pattern of a picture 13½ by 16 inches; a color chart and key; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed.

Send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) for this pattern to The Sewing Circle Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Ave., New York, N. Y.

Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

CHECK THAT COUGH BEFORE IT GETS WORSE

Check it before it gets you down. Check it before others, maybe the children, catch it. Check it with FOLEY'S HONEY & TAR. This double-acting compound gives quick relief and speeds recovery. Soothes raw, irritated tissues; quickly allays tickling, hacking. Spoonful on retiring makes for a cough-free sleep. No habit-forming, stomach-upsetting drugs. Ideal for children, too. Don't let that cough due to a cold hang on! For quick relief and speedy recovery insist on FOLEY'S HONEY & TAR.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

Mrs. W. H. Seelye of 2138 Humboldt St., Bellingham, Wash., said: "Some time ago I had no strength. I would become tired easily. It was an effort for me to do anything. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription improved my appetite and helped to build me up so that I felt fine, and housework became a pleasure instead of a burden." New size, tablets 50 cents.

what Irvin S. Cobb thinks about:

Greenhorn Hunters
BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF. —Now that the casualty lists are drifting in, there's talk of action to cut down the needless fatalities that mark every gunning season.

Greenhorns prowl the glade, firing at anything that moves. All who can afford hunting licenses and high-powered rifles are eligible. They rarely hit big game, but seem able to blast down humans at any distance. If it were permissible to mount guides' heads there'd be handsome trophies over many a mantelpiece in this fair but careless land.

Once there was a Maine guide—so the old story runs—who got goshawfully tired of being shot at by city slickers. So he made a complete suit of broad awning stripes, alternately white and black. He figured that ought to save him, but, on his next trip into the woods, an amateur potted him the first shot.

At the inquest, the coroner said: "We know you didn't mean to kill poor Eph, but how in thunder did you think a man dressed like him could be a deer?"

"I didn't think he was a deer," confessed the remorseful one, "I thought he was a zebra."

Antics of "Automaniacs"
IT MUST indeed be true that providence looks after idiots and drunkards. Else how could all such be able to get drivers' licenses?

I rode with a prize specimen yesterday. He seemed lucid enough until he got his foot on the gas. That was what fooled me. If ever I ride with him again, which heaven forbid, I shall carry a lily in my hand—just in case.

We had a set of overcoat buttons, the top off of a stop signal and part of a gocart in our car when we arrived. So we didn't actually hit anybody, this being due, I think, to his holding dead on the mark instead of leading it by a few inches, as one should when one's target is moving. He hopes for better luck next time.

Yet there was no rush. There rarely is. And that's the funny part about an automaniac's reactions. It's the only funny part—the rest is tragedy.

The Simpson Affair.

THE simple name of Simpson has become practically a household word in America, but 'tis said millions of English people haven't so much as heard it yet—or at least not in their public prints. It's another case of having to go away from home to hear the news.

If it's true, as exclusively reported over here, that his majesty invited a premier and primate—two of the highest cards in the whole deck—to mind their own business, he set the tune for the daily press of his realm to dance by.

However, the British newspapers never did develop the high arts of keyhole peeping and transom lifting to the extent practiced by a certain peculiar school of American journalism. With them, an Englishman's house still is his castle, though it be a glass house. Or even a royal palace.

But some of the London gossip-writers must be so swollen up with strangulated copy they've probably had to have their clothes let out. Now, if haply 'twas purely a Yankee affair—instead of being, as it were, fifty-fifty—how those boys would love to cut loose.

IRVIN S. COBB.

Hitch to Nature
Emerson's wonderful line, "Hitch your wagon to a star," is often quoted as though is simply meant "Aim high," but this was not Emerson's meaning. He meant that man, if he would accomplish his best work, must hitch to nature's forces, and make gravitation and all the star forces do his bidding.

He must swing his hammer down and not up, so that the pull of the sun and the earth and the stars will supplement his human muscle. The farmer is doing this when he ploughs and sows, the miner is doing this when he delves for gold or coal. The preacher is doing this when he suits his address to the capacity of his audience. The teacher is doing this when he teaches in such a way that the child can understand.

The man who imagines that he can force nature to go his way is a fool; he had better save his labor; he must do nature's way if he would accomplish anything.

My Favorite Recipe
By Mary Pickford

Egg Milady
Red pimientos stuffed with three eggs beaten slightly; add ½ pint double cream. Season with cayenne and salt. Put pimiento into mold previously buttered. Pour this mixture into sound red pimiento and fill a pan with water three-quarters the height of mold. Bake in moderate oven for fifteen minutes. Unmold on crouton piece of round toast which is covered with pate de fois gras and serve with Newburgh sauce poured over this. Piece of black truffle on top.

CONSTIPATION MADE HUSBAND DRAGGY
JUST NO GOOD!
HE just didn't feel like HE work or play. Always draggy and worn out—often cross and irritable. But like so many women, his wife knew about Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets). She put him wise. He found out what an astonishing difference there was in this purely vegetable laxative. Not merely partial relief. Instead through cleansing action that ridged in his system of poisonous waste, refreshed him, made him feel like a "million." Try NR Tablets yourself. Note how gentle they are and non-habit forming. 25 tablets—25 cents at any drugstore.
