STUDY CLUB ENJOYS GUEST-DAY TEA

Guest speaker at the Vernonia Study club's guest-day tea at the Judd Greenman home Thursday afternoon of last week was Mrs. R. A. Harcourt of Portland, who read "Victoria Regina." Mrs. Harcourt, who is a former teacher of dramatic art at Northwestern university, gave a most effective interpretation of the famous play.

Mrs. L. H. Dewey sang "Absent" and "Maiden's Song" accompanied by Mrs. Enoch Dumas. Mrs. Dumas played as a piano solo, MacDowell's "To a Water Lily." The Vernonia high school girls' trio, Beulah Reed, Joanne Nichols and Bertha Thompson sang "While the Birds are Singing" with Amy Hughes, their director, accompanying.

Mrs. E. R. Estey and Mrs. Ben Bennett presided at the tea table. Mrs. Paul Gordon, Mrs. H. M. Bigelow, Mrs. Ivan N. McCollom and Mrs. Enoch Dumas assisted in serving.

Bowls of spring flowers formed the decorative note for the tea table and the rooms.

The program committee consisted of Mrs. McCollom, Mrs. Estey and Mrs. Bennett. Mrs. Dumas, Mrs. E. J. Douglass and Mrs. Bigelow were in charge of the tea.

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. F. R. Olin, Mrs. C. L. Anderson, Mrs. F. M. Ruhl, Mrs. George Drorbaugh, Mrs. J. W. Vaughan, Mrs. Lee Caulfield, Mrs. L. Ward, Mrs. Wallace McCrae, Mrs. Robert Houck of Portland, Mrs. Sam Hearing, Mrs. Robert Rushing, Mrs. Oscar George, Mrs. L. H. Dewey, Mrs. J. F. Santee, Mrs. H. E. McGraw, Mrs. C. H. Jarvis and Mrs. L. G. Hawken.

MR AND MRS. MCCOLLOM ARE GUESTS OF HONOR

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan N. McCollom were honor guests at an indoor picnic dinner given by the grade school faculties in the Washington school Monday evening.

As a farewell gift to Superintendent McCollom and Mrs. McCollom, who will leave the second week in June for Adna, Washington, where he accepted a position as superintendent of schools, the teachers presented a large I.E.S. floor lamp. Enoch Dumas made the presentation.

Ping pong and other games were enjoyed during the evening. Beautiful spring flowers decorated the room.

OREGON-AMERICAN GIVES DANCE IN NEW DINING HALL

To celebrate the opening of the big new dining room at Camp McGregor, employees and their friends were guests of the Oregon-American Lumber corporation at a dance at the camp last Friday night, May 14.

A crowd estimated at 500 was at Keasey to take the train provided by the company. Music was furnished by one of Portland's finest dance orchestras and guests reported one of the best dances in many years.

A lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and ice cream was served at eleven o'clock and ice cold punch was served throughout the evening by the boarding house staff.

Judd Greenman said, "We will have another one of these every 25 years," when he announced that the train would leave promptly at 12:30.

The jolly group, tired but happy, sang during the train ride home. Among enthusiastic guests one said, "Surely everyone thanks you, Oregon American, for good music, good food, good order and a whale of a good time."

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Permanent officers were elected by the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday evening following a picnic supper on Rock creek. Mrs. Harry G. Sandon is the president. The club voted to affiliate with the state and national federations in July.

Other officers elected include Julia Keasey, vice president; Edna Owens, recording secretary; and Mrs. Robert Rushing, corresponding secretary.

June 8 is the date for the next meeting. The place will be announced later.

LITTLE DANCE CLUB GIVES LAST OF SERIES

The last of the winter series of dances given by the Little

Dance club was an event of Saturday night in the Odd Fellows hall with the Pacific university orchestra furnishing the music.

Unusual decorative features included a mirrored ball above the center of the floor which reflected colored lights, and a May pole arrangement on the orchestra's platform.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Dumas, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rushing. Mrs. Dumas was chairman.

LOYAL WOMEN MEET IN CHURCH PARLOR

Lessons in knitting, tatting and crocheting were exchanged by members of the Loyal Women who met in the Christian church parlors Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The group adjourned to attend the May festival program on the high school lawn and returned later to the church where Mrs. J. A. McDonald and Mrs. Thor Gronbeck, hostesses, served refreshments.
