Construction started this week on the new telephone building.

Fire destroyed the new residence of O. H. Graves Friday. All the furniture and household goods were lost.

A carload of logs spilled in front of the railway station Friday noon, and one of them nearly hit a little girl who was standing there. Lee Schwab who was inside opened the door of the station just in time to let her get out of the way.

A daughter named Lois Jean was born July 18 to Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Raymer.

BIG RUSSELL BROS. CIRCUS TO BE IN THIS SECTION SOON

There will be a general exodus of circus admirers from this city and vicinity when Russell Bros. Big 3-Ring Circus and Menagerie gives two performances in St. Helens, Saturday, August 7, at 2 and 8 p. m.

"When you have seen one circus you have seen them all" was a remark frequently heard in the past, but nowadays such does not hold true. The Russell Circus has a reputation for presenting more actual novel and surprising acts than any other show and because of this it claims the motto, "the highest class circus in the world." This is a big show, usually exhibiting in cities ranging from ten thousand to half a million or

Donald, Norman Green, Della Cline, O. F. Burke, Ward Gooding, Veldon Parker and E. A. Green climbed Mt. Haad Sunday.

Miss Edna Owens was given a birthday party on her 13th birthday at her home August 2.

Mrs. C. S. Hoffman received word that Mr. Hoffman and the two boys have reached their destination at Elk Point, S. D., after traveling 2500 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. McNeill returned Tuesday from a trip into California and southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kullander and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lindley returned Sunday from a week's outing at Diamond and Odell lakes.

Mrs. Jack Nance was the honor guest at a shower at the home of Mrs. J. W. Brown Monday evening.

Personal

Miss Amy Hughes returned Sunday night from a month's stay in California. She was a guest of Miss Frances Kremer, former Vernonia girl at Berkeley, and visited San Francisco and the Yosemite. She visited at Grass Valley over the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Oscar Kaphammer and children Eddie and Dickie have been visiting this week at the home of her brother in Oregon City.

more in population, since a capacity crowd for one performance only will not meet the gigantic expense involved.

Daring exploits in the air by the Five Fearless Flyers, the Rebras Duo from France, Miss Aerialetta, the Willis Sisters and a score of lovely aerial ballerinas; spectacular acrobatic feats by such troupes as the Six Lelands, the Conner Trio and the Ballentena Brothers; incredible animal intelligence exemplified by trained sea-lions, bears, elephants, horses, ponies, monkeys and a chimpanzee that is all but human—these are a few of the many attractive features presented to the stirring strains of circus band music and interspersed by the antics of those indispensable funny fellows, the clowns.
