

WOODWORKERS HOLD PICNIC AT BALM GROVE

A woodworkers' picnic sponsored by Locals No. 5 of Forest Grove and No. 24 of Carlton, with the aid of Ladies auxiliary No. 9 of Forest Grove and Glenwood was held Sunday at Balm Grove. A large crowd of union men and their families enjoyed the speeches, games and other entertainments climaxed with a free dance in the evening. The music was furnished by Art Rust's orchestra.

In charge of races was Harry Farr and David Cota. W. L. Newton of Vernonia was one of the winners in the three-legged race.

Glen Blair efficiently acted as master of ceremonies at the loud speaker. Edna Gillespie, chairman of the ladies' auxiliary No. 9, greeted the guests, and invited wives, mothers and daughters of all union woodworkers to join the auxiliaries. Bert Close, chairman of Forest Grove local No. 5 praised the work of the ladies' auxiliary for their work in creating a friendly feeling between the union people and those outside the union. He introduced Ivan Bailey of local No. 5, who stressed the importance of women in the pioneering and building up of our democracy. Locally the auxiliary has done what the men never could have accomplished without their aid, he asserted.

The main address was given by Harold Pritchett, president of the International Woodworkers of America. Other speakers were Ernie Williams, business agent of the Carlton local, Ed McSorlie, business agent of the Forest Grove local, Harry Farr of Forest Grove, and Mrs. L. Allman of the ladies garment workers. Mrs. Allman asked the support of the new C.I.O. group.

A delegation from Carlton invited the auxiliary from Forest Grove to organize a similar auxiliary for their women Friday, Sept. 3. Visitors from Vernonia also hoped to have these women go to Vernonia in the near future to organize.

Credit for the success of the picnic is due to the committee of men and women who put forth every effort to show one a good time. Chairman was Doris Anderson of Glenwood and other members of the committee were Anne Blair, Edna Gillespie, David Cota, Charles Swanson, Harry Farr, Pete Hold and Art Morris, besides several who helped on the grounds on special committees.

NOTICE TO GUN CLUB MEMBERS

All members of Vernonia Gun club are asked to be out Saturday and Sunday to complete the rifle range.

The club has accepted a challenge from a Portland team for a matched shoot, and it will be necessary to select our team. This should be easy for Vernonia as we have some fine rifle shots here.

There will be constructed in the near future an indoor rifle range for the junior club. It will be located in the Legion hall.

TOWNSEND FLASHES

The first of a series of Townsend stamp collections came to a close Monday night, August 30. The contest was very close and created a great deal of interest.

At the next meeting of the club sides will be chosen for a second contest. The winning side of the contest will be entertained at a dinner September 13.

A tri-county meeting of Columbia, Washington and Yamhill counties will be held next Sunday, September 5 in Hillsboro at Shute's park. An all day session will be held beginning with a religious service at 11:15 at the park.

A basket lunch at noon and speaking in the afternoon. Mr. Arthur Moore of Monmouth, Oregon, will be a speaker, also Clarence Wagner of Portland.

Everyone is cordially invited to bring your basket and come and spend a nice day.

Miss Enid Bolton of The Dalles, former teacher of commercial subjects in the Vernonia high school was a guest of Mrs. L. H. Dewey Tuesday remaining until Wednesday morning. Don Dewey accompanied her to Portland to visit with his aunt. Miss Bolton will remain in Portland a few days before going to Redmond, Oregon, where she has a position in the high school.

Helmi Kauppi has returned to Kimberly, in central Oregon, where she has resumed her position as a teacher. She spent the past year at home here.

Mrs. Jack Parry took her small son to Portland to have his tonsils out Monday.
