picking on them, abusing them and snooping on them. Yet the only place anyone can get a job is from a private employer. The employers won't do anything while living under the fear of the government, with taxes, snooping and so on to harass them." Verily it is high time for some effort be made to create more confidence among the millions of employers in the nation and to definitely let them know that their government is with them instead of against them.

-Hillsboro Argus

If the present attempt of C. I. O. and A. F. of L. leaders to patch up their quarrel should fail, President Roosevelt may decide to drop his "hands off" policy in the bitter labor quarrel, says a United Press dispatch from Washington. If this report proves true, it will be one of the best bits of news the nation has heard in many a day. Weary of labor strife, the public has been looking to the president for a long time to do something about it. Perhaps he is at last going to act.
