Two of Society's Favorites

George Vanderbilt and his wife are among the leaders of the society colony at Palm Beach, Fla., this winter. They are pictured taking a spin in their specially designed roadster. The young Vanderbilts are among the most popular couples in the younger society set of New York and Newport during the social season and find themselves the center of activities during their winter sojourn at Palm Beach.

Ship Reaches Its Last Port of Call

The freighter Ohioan, which went aground many months ago off Lands End near San Francisco, Calif., is shown above after it was broken in two during one of the worst storms off the California coast in many years. Because of the precarious position in which the ship was left, it was impossible for salvaging vessels to approach close enough or for tugs to help float the vessel.

"Pendulum" Railroad Cars Demonstrated

Revolutionary new "pendulum" railroad coaches as they were put through their paces near Ingleside, Calif., recently. By using "hammock" supporters, light-weight metals and lowering the center of gravity, the designer, Cortlandt T. Hill, young grandson of the late James J. Hill, has produced a new type of streamliner that "banks" on turns much like an airplane, weighs 38,000 pounds less than present-day streamlined coaches and can be turned out for less than $80,000.
