Daughter Improving—

Miss Ruth Boeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Boeck of Mist route, is improving of late following a series of treatments in Portland for an asthmatic condition. The Boecks motor to Portland each Saturday to take Ruth to a specialist there where she is undergoing treatment.

Return From California—

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lynch of Riverview returned Friday evening from a motor trip to Los Angeles and other California points. They had spent the holidays and ensuing time with friends and relatives there. They went as far south as Tia Juana.

Gets Second Fish—

M. A. Oakes' much-publicized feat, that of tying a steelhead to a stake along the banks of the Nehalem in the Riverview district was followed closely by a second good catch Friday when he hooked and landed a 6-pound female steelhead in about the same place.

Has Pictures—

Appearing in the column "In Other Years" recently was the story concerning the slaying of a cougar, nine feet from tip to tip, in the Natal district. Mrs. M. A. Oakes brought to the Eagle office Saturday morning a photo taken of the youths and their kill at the time. The young men treed the animal thinking it was a bobcat but found, to their surprise, later, that the animal was a cougar.

Druggist in Portland—

Lee Witty, pharmacist with the

Nance Pharmacy, spent the week end in Portland with his wife and family. Mrs. Witty holds the position as head of the cosmetic division of the Lipman & Wolfe drug department. The two Witty sons are attending Hill Military Academy.

Exams Announced—

A junior graduate nurse, $1,620; associate wool technologist, $3,200; and four industrial classification analysts, from $2,600 to $4,600 annually, are positions open through civil service, O. T. Bateman, local postal clerk announced this week. Full information may be obtained from him at the Vernonia office.

Baby Improves—

The 15-day old son, James Henry, of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woolsey, winners of the First Annual Baby Derby here, is improving at the Doernbecher hospital in Portland. Mr. Woolsey said this week. Mr. Woolsey, Mrs. Woolsey's mother, Mrs. Stella Kern of Hillsboro; and his mother, Mrs. Ida Keegan of the Woodstock district, Portland, spent the week end in Portland with the new arrival. Mrs. Keegan has been with Mrs. Woolsey since the baby's birth, staying in Vernonia to care for the Woolsey home.

Fern Pickers Leave—

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lyons left this week for Puget Sound after spending some time here picking and baling ferns for eastern consumption. Mr. and Mrs. Lyons formerly resided at 1342 West Bridge Street. Due to inclement weather, the former residents stated that they had not been able to pick as much greenery as anticipated.

Officials Here—

Sheriff Calhoun and District Attorney D. O. Bennett were visitors in Vernonia Tuesday checking with local business men concerning pinball, slot machines and punch boards. The officials were from St. Helens.

Nut Grower Visits—

R. M. McClure, prominent walnut grower of Sholes, Oregon, visited Tuesday in Vernonia for a short time.

On Honor Roll—

Miss Cathrin Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hoffman of Vernonia, is one of the 250 of the O. S. C. students, from 4,500, who was successful in gaining a place on the current term's honor roll at the state institution. Miss Hoffman is majoring in secretarial science.

Fixing Sidewalks—

The city, under the supervision of Marshal Harry King, is repairing many of the wooden sidewalks in the city limits. A crew has been busy for two weeks making the repairs. Sidewalk repair notices have been sent to many property holders here and in event the owners do not follow the notice, the city makes the repairs and places a lien against the property in the form of added taxation.

Living Here—

Mrs. James Hodges, formerly of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, arrived in Vernonia last Thursday evening to reside here with her husband who recently accepted the lineman's position here with the Oregon Gas & Electric Co. Mr. and Mrs. Hodges are living at the Roseway apartments.

Go To St Helens—

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Hawken spent the past week end in St. Helens where Standard Oil Co. managers were entertained, with their wives, at an informal party. In Clatskanie, Mr. and Mrs. Hawken met Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snider who accompanied them to St. Helens. Both of the men are company managers.

Gets Peculiar Specimen—

An ordinary pine squirrel with a white-tipped tail was brought to N. S. Soden, local barber, this week, and was sent immediately by him for mounting, later to be displayed at the local shop. It was the first specimen of its type with a white tail he had ever seen, Soden said. About two inches of tail was reported as snow white. The specimen will be available for local persons interested.

Asked to Check—

Mrs. E. H. Washburn, Vernonia registrar for voters, suggested to local people wishing to vote in the May primaries that they check their registration to make certain that they will be registered properly when the election date arrives. For newcomers who have resided within the state the required six months and in the county and precinct the proper length of time, Mrs. Washburn is now accepting registrations.

Submits to Operation—

Mrs. W. J. Armitage is in the Joyce Clinic in Portland following her submission to a major operation Monday morning. Mrs. Armitage has suffered for some time with adhesions and the operation was advised following an examination at the clinic. She is recovering rapidly at the hospital. Her husband reported yesterday following a visit there with her. He accompanied Mrs. Armitage to Portland the past week end to be with her prior and during the operation.

Resigns—

E. S. Thompson, salesman with the Vernonia Auto Company since August, 1934, resigned Saturday, according to an official announcement made this week by the local firm. The resignation severs all connection Thompson has had with the auto company, the announcement stated. The former well-known local salesman has not revealed his plans for the future. Thompson has been prominent in civic affairs in Vernonia during his employe here, having served as commander of the local Legion post. He is now district membership chairman for the ex-service men's organization. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson own their own home in the Riverview district.

Portlanders Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Downey and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kelly, Portland, spent the week end in Vernonia with Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Eby and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Washburn. The visiting men, with Washburn, Loei Roberts, Lowell Hieber and Tom Bateman enjoyed a Sunday fishing trip on the Nehalem. One steelhead was caught by the crowd.
