Here From Tillamook—

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Koster of Tillamook were recent visitors at the M. B. Willard home in River-view.

Pillow Cases Stolen—

The saying: "A woman scorned, etc.," may fit all right in some instances but let someone steal seven pillow cases from off a front porch and then "fury" really counts. At least that's the way Mrs. M. B. Willard, resident of the Riverview district feels this week after a thief entered the Willard yard, quietly appropriating seven of the valued linens. No trace of the marauder was found. Mrs. Willard would not have cared so much, she intimated, but the seven completely ruins a set she has treasured. The cases were stolen Monday night.
