

Fire Fighters Hired Through Pittsburg

Information Made Available for Local Men Interested in Work

So many calls were received by The Eagle concerning the whereabouts of the headquarters for hiring firefighters that Inspector Clinton Hoke was sought out and interrogated regarding the query.

When extra men are required to quell blazes in this area, it was learned, they are hired through Dave Conn, district warden, whose office is maintained at the Pittsburg fire station.

A large crew of men was hired here the past week for combatting the Hoffman Lookout district blaze. In most cases, however, unemployed loggers and camp men are offered the first opportunity for the extra work, it was said, due to their acquaintance with the wooded areas.

Open Meet Thursday—

All Oregon-American mill employees are invited to attend an open CIO meeting this (Thursday) evening at the local IWA headquarters. The meeting is to start at 7:30 and is said to promise interest for local mill workers.

News of the Theatre

OWENS DOES MUSIC—

Harry Owens, composer of "Sweet Lillani," not only appears in a featured part in "Cocoanut Grove," the new film that comes today at the Joy Theatre, but wrote two hit tunes for it as well. They include "Cocoanut Grove," and "Dreamy Hawaiian Moon." The other two songs of the four heard in the picture are "Says My Heart" and "You Leave Me Breathless," both warbled by Fred McMurray and Harriet Hilliard, the leads in the picture.

PLAYS MANY SCENES—

One of the longest and most difficult roles ever attempted by a child is Bonita Granville's in "Beloved Brat," the Warner Bros. drama showing Saturday only at the Joy Theatre. She appears in 263 of the 274 scenes. The young actress took it all in her stride, however, and went through her 263 scenes without a single hitch. Her reward was the sincere congratulations of Director Arthur Lubin, who considers her the outstanding child star on the screen today.

ANOTHER CHARACTER—

Wallace Beery's long success on the screen has been dominated by a steadfast refusal to be typed. The result has been a series of triumphs in so variegated a series of pictures as "Min and Bill," "The Champ," "The Big House," and "Bad Man of Brimstone."

Now he creates another new character for motion pictures, the rough, dynamic, big-hearted Caesar of "Port of Seven Seas," in which he stars with Frank Morgan, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Beal and Jessie Ralph. The new picture will be shown for two days at the Joy Theatre starting Sunday.

STONE WORE OWN UNIFORM IN ROLE OF ARMY SURGEON—

When Lewis Stone went into his role as an army surgeon in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War, the part he plays in "Yellow Jack," opening Tuesday at the Joy Theatre, the uniform he wore was the last word in authenticity. For the veteran actor wore the uniform in which he actually had served in Cuba. Stone had enlisted with the New York volunteers and served for the duration of the war.

His experience enabled Stone to offer valuable technical advice to Robert Montgomery and Virginia Bruce, who are co-starred in the new drama, Montgomery as the heroic soldier who offers himself as a living sacrifice to the cause of stamping out yellow fever, and Miss Bruce as the nurse who accompanies the expedition to the island of Cuba.

'JEZEBEL INSPIRES NEW TORCH TUNE—

Inspired by Bette Davis' grand portrayal of a bewitching siren of the South in "Jezebel," at the Joy Theatre Thursday, Harry Warren and Johnny Mercer wrote a song entitled "Jezebel," which has been incorporated into the score.

Introduced over the air by Guy Lombardo recently, the torchy tune has caught on with other top-notch orchestras, and is the current rave of the airwaves. Several recordings have already been made.

MORE FREAK EGGS PRODUCT AT ROCK CREEK FARM

Freak eggs appear to be a specialty with hens belonging to Mrs. Herb Counts, Rock creek route resident. Two eggs, one a large one and the other smaller than the average Bantam egg, were produced there this week . . . perhaps by the same hen. The eggs were brought to The Eagle office and are being displayed by the management. Mrs. Counts is raising White Leghorn chickens and on occasion finds the freaks in the nests.
