All of us know how often kitchen curtains must be laundered. Yet, we like interesting windows in this room as well as any other. Well, here is the answer with the minimum of work.

The curtains themselves are as easy to wash and iron as a dish towel—no frills, just hems. But don't make them too skimpy. A full width of 35-inch-wide material is not too wide. Cut away the selvage at the front edge and hem it with a 1-inch hem. Use a 2-inch hem at the bottom. This gives the curtains body so they will have smart crisp lines. The casing at the top should be just wide enough for the curtain rod. And don't forget to allow for shrinkage if the material is not pre-shrunk.

If figured material is used, choose colors that will harmonize with the shelf edging along the top of the window and the tie-

Pretty Frocks Easy to Sew

IF YOU'RE one of those women who so often say "Dear me, I wish I could sew!", then by all means try your hand on these smart designs, and like many, many others, just as inexperienced as you are, you'll find that you can sew, and enjoy it! Our patterns include detailed sew charts that show you just what to do, step by step.

The Woman's Dress. Here we have a diagram design, which means you can finish it successfully in a few hours. And you'll find it one of the most becoming and comfortable you ever wore round the house. It's made on easy, unhampering lines, with darts that make it slim, but not tight, at the waistline. The short sleeves are slashed, which makes them easier to work in, and prettier to look at. Sleeves, neckline and pointed closing are trimmed with ricrac. Make this dress of gingham, seersucker, percale or calico.

The Little Girl's Dress. This dress will make your small daughter look even more adorable, with its high, snug waist, square neck, puff sleeves and full skirt. You'll probably want to make her half a dozen dresses just like this! And she'll certainly beg for at least one little sweetheart apron, to wear when she is helping you—or thinking she is! For the dress, choose dimity, dotted Swiss, gingham or percale. For the apron, gandy, dimity or lawn.

On the Highway

Some of the most important rules for safe driving:
Never drive fast over a road you don't know like a book.
Learn what you can expect of your car.

Always expect the worst. If there's a tree beside the road ahead, figure a car may come from behind it. If there's a house near by, a child may run across the road there. If there's a parked car, count on its cutting suddenly onto the pavement.

Signal your intentions to all persons who may be affected by your acts.

Traitorous Doubts

Our doubts are traitors, and make us lose the good we oft might win, by fearing to attempt.—Shakespeare.

AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

Coffee for Ginger Cookies.—Try mixing ginger cookies with cold coffee instead of water.

Beautifying Wash Stand.—Rubberized cretonne if pasted around an unsightly wash stand will cover ugly plumbing and make a bathroom attractive.

Napkins From Tablecloths.—When tablecloths wear thin in the center, cut up the outside into 12 or 16-inch squares and hemstitch them. These make napkins which will wear for some time.

For Privacy.—If you live so close to the highway that passers-by can look into your home, try painting the screen doors with a very thin coat of white paint and you can look out, but people passing cannot see into your living room.

Fruit Juice Ice Cubes.—If you have a gas or electric refrigerator, try using fruit juices for ice cubes instead of water. They are very pretty in fruit beverages. Lemon cubes are lovely in iced tea.
