News of the Theatre

GOES HOLLYWOOD—

When vaudeville died, it went to Hollywood, says Charles Winninger, veteran comedian. Such stars of the two a day shows as Jerry Pena, Jack Stary, Alatheia and Catherine Clarke and numerous others do their specialties of balancing and fire juggling in Winninger's latest Universal comedy, "Goodbye Broadway" which comes to the Joy Theatre today (Thursday).

WILL ROGERS WAS ACTRESS' SPONSOR—

Rochelle Hudson, protegee of the beloved Will Rogers, who sponsored her in many of his own pictures because she was "home folks" from Oklahoma, appears in the newest 20th Century-Fox production, "Rascals," opening Saturday at the Joy Theatre. Jane Withers is starred. Other featured players include Robert Wilcox, Borrah Minevitch and His Gang.

"LORD JEFF"—

"Lord Jeff," dramatic story of the training of boys for Britain's future Merchant Marine, introduces Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney, companions in "Captains Courageous" and "The Devil is a Sissy," in entertainingly new characterizations at the Joy Theatre Sunday and Monday.

The pert little Southern belle, a campus beauty queen until taken into the Hollywood fold, plays a helpful shipboard acquaintance of Barbara Stanwyck, co-starred with Herbert Marshall in the picture. Miss Bowdon was brought to Hollywood a few months ago under contract to 20th Century-Fox but until selected for the important role in "Always Goodbye" she had been used for bit work in order to give her the necessary preliminary training for more ambitious parts.
