LAUREL AND HARDY FUNNIER IN "BLOCK-HEADS"

In "Block-Heads," new Hal Roach M-G-M comedy starring Laurel and Hardy, and coming to the Joy Theatre on Tuesday, the comedians find themselves in a swank, modern apartment house. The dignity of the surroundings, however, offers a bar to their continuous merriment. In fact, the austerity of the backgrounds makes their famous gags all the more ludicrous, and the current comedy contains an abundance of side-splitting incidents.

AMBULANCE CHASER NOVEL BECOMES SUBJECT

That bugaboo of big corporations the ambulance chaser, is hilariously highlighted in "The Chaser," which opens at the Joy Theatre next Tuesday for an engagement of 2 days.

The story, a comedic relation of the incidents attended upon the unique profession of chasing ambulances with both fun and profit in view, sustains laughter from the opening sequence to a fade-out that is at once startling and hilarious. Romance enters the picture in the attraction of Dennis O'Keefe, the ambulance chaser in person, to Ann Morris who, unknown to him, is a spy in the pay of the Street Railway Company which has suffered mostly from O'Keefe's activities.

ROBINSON BATTLES RACKETS

Presenting Edward G. Robinson in an entirely new characterization, far removed from his famous gangster roles, Columbia's "I Am the Law" opens Thursday at the Joy Theatre for a 2 day run.

Robinson is seen in "I Am the Law" as a mild-mannered college professor who overnight becomes a two-fisted whirlwind when drafted to wipe out a racketeering ring. As a fighting prosecutor, it is his task to destroy the octopus of crime whose tentacles have spread into every walk of life in a city where police and the district attorney are absolutely powerless because terrorized victims refuse to testify.

RAYE, HOPE AND GRABLE STAR IN COMEDY

Join the navy and see the girls! That's a fair picture of a sailor's life, at least when the fleet's in according to Paramount's new marine comedy, "Give Me a Sailor," which opens Saturday at the Joy Theatre. With Bob Hope, Martha Raye, Betty Grable and Jack Whiting playing the leading roles, the picture tells a rollicking story of two sailors who pursue the same girl but change their minds when the girl's Cinderella sister turns out to be the winner of a national beauty contest.

GAYNOR BECAME A STAR DESPITE HERSELF

Strangely enough, Janet Gaynor, on the Joy Theatre screen with Robert Montgomery in "Three Loves Has Nancy," never even dreamed that she could ever become a motion picture star.

The combined efforts of her family were necessary to get her to make her first call at a studio casting office, and the rebuffs she

VOTERS DON'T BE MISLED

On the ballot in the November election will be a measure entitled "A Bill to Regulate Picketing and Boycotting." The sponsors of this measure claim it is designed only to regulate certain activities of Labor Organizations. Don't be misled. This bill will

1. Prohibit unions from functioning in the interest of their members.
2. Prevent the organization of new unions.
3. Prohibit peaceful picketing.
4. Prohibit any spoken or written word which might be interpreted as encouraging a boycott of products, however unfair the conditions under which the products were made.
5. Protect and perpetuate the anti-union shop and sweatshop conditions in industry.
6. Prevent union members from determining for themselves what dues they should pay to conduct their reasonable activities of the union.
7. Encourage and protect strikebreaking.
8. Establish government by injunction.

To deprive the working man of his right to organize and bargain collectively will result in a much lower living standard for the workers, which will have its direct affect on the farmer and the small business man.

The inevitable result of such legislation is further estrangement between capital and labor and will result in industrial chaos. This bill is an attack at the very foundation of American Democracy in that it will secure advantages to one class of people at the direct disadvantage of another class of people.
