Pinochle Club Meets—

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cline were host and hostess to a Pinochle Club Friday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Roberson. An enjoyable evening was had with Alton Roberson winning high prize and Virginia Roberson low prize. Refreshments were served at the end of the playing.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCrae, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Corrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Al Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Vernonia, also Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Debber, Mrs. Clara Miller and Mrs. Francis Jones of Portland.

Legion Auxiliary Has Meeting—

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting on Monday evening, October 17.

They will give their annual Armistice Day dinner at six o'clock p. m. November 11 at the I. O. O. F. hall. Ex-service men and their families are invited to attend.

The ladies on the dinner committee are Mrs. J. L. Timmons, Mrs. A. J. Schultz, Mrs. V. L. Powell, Mrs. Bessie Cummings and Mrs. Isabel Culbertson.

Those on the clean-up committee are Mrs. Harry Kerns, Mrs. L. C. Brock, Mrs. Ruby Biggs and Mrs. Rose Valpiani.

A motion was passed to give a Halloween party for the group of camp fire girls who are being sponsored by the Auxiliary.

Birthday Party—

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Currie were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening, October 15, at their home on A street, the occasion being Mrs. Currie's birthday. The time was spent playing pinochle, prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor. The "uninvited" guests brought delicious refreshments which were served at a late hour.

It was decided to give dimes for the disabled veterans fund.

Halloween Party Planned—

Miss Amy Hughes, program chairman for the Halloween party to be given by the Business and Professional Women's Club has appointed her committees to help her. Miss Evelyn Cook and Miss Ruby Maddess are planning a lively night of Halloween fun. Mrs. Dorothy Sandon and Mrs. Rose Valpiani are on the refreshment committee and Miss Jane Lovett made out the invitations for the club.

The party will be at the Washington grade school Tuesday, October 25 at eight o'clock. Members and guests are asked to come in play clothes.

Father, Son Banquet Due—

The Evangelical church will sponsor the annual father and sons banquet Friday, November 4. A good program with a good speaker is being arranged.

Legion Plans Dance and Turkey Shoot—

Vernonia Post No. 119 of the American Legion met Tuesday night October 18 to listen to a report of the turkey shoot. The Legion is planning to have a big shoot with turkeys, chickens, geese and possibly pigs to compete for.

The post voted unanimously to write a letter of commendation to state police departments regarding the efficient work being done here by the local state police officer.

Post Commander Tapp appointed Clare Jarpis on the Christmas activities committee to represent the post.

An interesting talk was given by Sergeant Gilvan on the work done by the Legion for the boys in their various boys' activities such as Boy Scouts, junior baseball and Sons of the American Legion. He also explained the work of his detachment which is stationed here.

It was brought out at the meeting that the Legion is planning a dinner for ex-service men and their families and also a dance in Armistice day. They are asking all the merchants of Vernonia to close on that day.

Mrs. McGraw Honored—

Honoring Mrs. H. E. McGraw, who recently moved to Forest Grove, members of the American Legion Auxiliary held a party at her home last Friday evening. Bridge and other games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Several pieces of table pottery were given Mrs. McGraw, completing a set which had been presented to her by other friends before she left Vernonia. A personal gift was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Cummings. Among those attending were: Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Harry Kerns, Mrs. Jack Nance and Mesdames Virgil

Powell, Ralph Valpiani, Harry Culbertson, Clare Jarvis, J. L. Timmons, E. R. Estey and J. W. Nichols. Mrs. Hughes from Forest Grove was also present.

Play Reviewed—

A current play was reviewed by Mrs. J. W. Nichols when the Vernonia Study Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben Bennett. A brief sketch of the author's life was given, along with criticisms and informal discussion with other members of the club. A short business session was held and routine matters were disposed of. It was decided to continue to assist the Campfire girls in securing
