Clothing Call Issued—

Friends: winter is here. There are families here with several children and with fathers idle because of snow so that after food and rent is paid there is nothing left for clothing. Please look into closets, sheds, everywhere to find outgrown shoes, coats, dresses and other clothing. Don't keep them to catch dust and moths. Give them out so others less fortunate can use them. Make my home the distributing center if you choose. I am glad to serve.—Mrs. A. E. Jennings, one block east of high school at 196 A street.
