High School-

HONOR GROUP SMALL-

Fewer students made the honor roll this last six week's period than any other time this year. There were only eleven—namely, Seniors Bobbie Bassett, Elizabeth Schaeck and Jean Vaughan; Juniors: Joan Lindsay; Sophomores: Roy Soejima and Betty Thacker; Freshmen: Etha Morris, Opal Scheuerman, Martha Tapp and Fred Thompson. The girls have a noticeable lead on the boys in regard to placing on the honor roll.

DANCE TO BE MARCH 17-

St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated by a dance given in the gym by the student body, March 17. Music will be furnished by the high school Swingsters who have been practicing for some time. There will be a charge of fifteen cents per person or twenty-five cents a couple.

JUNIORS TO HAVE PARTY-

Members of the junior class will assemble at the high school gym this Friday, March 10, at 7:30 for a class party. Ice cream and cookies are the refreshments planned by Joanne Nichols and Maxine Johns. Entertainment for the evening has not yet been determined but the committee promises that it will be good. No seniors or underclassmen will be allowed.

ORCHESTRA GETS NEW PIECES

"You're Going to See A Lot of Me," "Siboney," "Could Be," "The Funny Old Hills," and "Get Out of Town," were the five new pieces received by the orchestra this week. The pieces were selected by the members by special vote, each voting for ones they wanted and the most requested ones were bought. They are practicing on them so they can play them at the dance March 17.

STUDENTS ATTEND TOURNAMENT-

Approximately 15 students of V. H. S. attended the basketball tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 2, 3, and 4 at Astoria. The few that stayed throughout the tournament stayed at auto camps and reported that an enjoyable time was had by all.

STUDENTS MAKE MODEL CITIES-

In connection with the study of city government, the civics class has been planning model cities. Several of the cities have been posted on the study hall blackboard for inspection. A very artistic reproduction of Vernonia was presented by John McKenzie.

TIMBERLINE PLANS LINE PARTY-

"Jesse James" is the picture to be viewed by the Timberline staff at a line party Thursday evening. After the show, the group will go to "The Cozy" for refreshments.

SERVICES HELD FOR LEWIS NELSON WED.; CIRCLE TO MEET

MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—Funeral services were held here Wednesday afternoon for Lewis Nelson who passed away Saturday in the St. Vincent hospital. He was a lifelong resident of the Nehalem Valley. He leaves a wife and ten children besides two sisters and other relatives and a host of friends who express their sympathy to the family. Burial was in the Mist cemetery.

Walt Batson was a Portland business visitor Wednesday as was Bernard Dowling.

Several ladies gathered at the Bridgers home Thursday to partake in the Stork shower given for Mrs. Al Becker at that time. The afternoon was spent in playing games and a social good time. Delicious refreshments were served at the close. Mrs. Becker received many useful gifts.

Members of the Mist Helping Circle will meet the 4th Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Seigenthaler.

A charivari was held at the Ed Reynolds home one night last week for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Moyan. Mrs. Moyan is a daughter of Mrs. Ed Reynolds.

The committee is busy with the program scheduled to take place Saturday evening at the new gym. Mrs. Bud Ashby spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. Keaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ballard spent the weekend at their pruned ranch near Independence. Mr. Ballard works here for the Mist Logging Co.

L. Wikstrom was at home from Taft over the weekend.

Mrs. Goldie Keaton is assisting Mrs. William Bridgers with her household duties between school hours.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Libel were callers at the L. E. McGee home on the "burn" Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ain Wallace called on Mrs. William Keaton Monday afternoon.

Mrs. W. M. Garlock and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Garlock were Saturday evening guests of Mrs. Austin Dowling.

Wednesday Portland visitors were Mrs. William Bridgers, Mrs. Don Hall and Mrs. C. O. Hayden.

Mrs. Charles Sundland and mother, Mrs. W. R. Johnson, called on Mrs. L. E. McGee Monday afternoon.

Pete Banzer was a Mist shopper Monday afternoon.

The last of the old creamery building has been torn down and the nice new home of Lawrence Jenson stands near the place that was once the scene of a thriving butter business, then later cheese factory.

Mrs. Ede Wallace was a recent visitor from Portland to our valley.

Mrs. C. F. Dowling of Tidewater was an early Tuesday morning visitor of Mrs. J. Joyce.

News of the Theatre

ONE A MONTH-

Fay Wray, Hollywood High School's gift to the film industry, is considered one of the best ping pong players in the film colony. The actress currently featured with Ralph Bellamy in Columbia's new drama, "Smashing the Spy Ring," is also considered one of the film colony's most hard working actresses. Miss Wray once starred in 12 pictures in as many months.

DIRECTING HORSE HIS HARDEST JOB-

You can tell an actor to start moving when the director shouts, "Action!" but you have to be careful with a horse.

In one of the scenes of "Arizona Wildcat," Leo Carrillo and Pauline Moore concluded their dialogue by driving off in a horse and buggy. When everything was set, Leeds gave the signal to "roll 'em" and as the sound man hollered "Action!" the horse trotted off the set before anyone had a chance to say a word.

After it happened three times Leeds decided that the horse was still reacting from a previous scene in which this was the signal to start. Leeds changed the word to "Go!" and the horse remained stationary. You can do other things with horses besides leading them to water.

EDDY, DIALECTICIAN!

Nelson Eddy's chief claim to fame among Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer musicians, particularly the members of the studio orchestra with whom he records his songs, is not his voice but his never-ending fund of Yiddish dialect stories. Between recordings of his numbers for "Let Freedom Ring," screening Sunday and Monday at the Joy Theatre, time had to be taken out to allow him to spring at least a dozen new ones.

CLIFF EDWARDS ACTED AS HIS OWN STAND-IN-

Cliff Edwards acted as his own stand-in for two weeks during the production of Columbia's "The Little Adventurers," Columbia film with Edith Fellows at the Joy Theatre Thursday and Friday. Edwards thus gave Morgan Brown, his stand-in, an opportunity to take advantage of a good acting offer at another studio.

AIR-MINDED FAMILY-

Olivia de Havilland, the only feminine principal in the cast of "Wings of the Navy," the Warner Bros.-Cosmopolitan naval aviation picture opening at the Joy Theatre next Thursday, is a first cousin of Capt. Geoffrey de Havilland, famous builder of British planes and automobile motors. Her father and the father of the plane builder were brothers.
