Bulletin Available—

"The Farm Vegetable Garden" is the title of a bulletin that contains considerable detailed information on the growing of different kinds of vegetables that are adapted to this county as to varieties, time of planting, and fertilizers to use. "Insect Pests of Vegetables and Their Control" is another bulletin that is of considerable value to anyone growing a garden. These bulletins can be obtained by communicating with Geo. A. Nelson, County Agricultural Agent, St. Helens.

100 Per Cent Report—

With 100 per cent of physicians reporting to the Oregon State Board of Health, a release from that group this week reveals that Columbia county at the present time has within its borders 12 cases of measles, one of chicken pox, one of mumps and two of scarlet fever. The bulletin is issued weekly by the board.

Applications must be filed with the Recorder, Labor Board, Puget Sound Navy Yard, Bremerton, Washington, not later than May 1. Full information may be obtained from O. T. Bateman at the Vernonia post office.

Style Show Due—

The Girl's League of the Vernonia high school presented a style show of spring wardrobe merchandise Wednesday afternoon to students of the school. The merchandise is that displayed by Vernonia business firms.

Club to Meet—

April 17 was announced this week as the date of the next school-masters club meeting to be held at Scappoose. No information was divulged as to the subjects to be considered at that time. A large number of the men members of the faculty in both local school systems will attend.

Easter Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson entertained with an Easter dinner at their home Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Ortman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Salaberry and family all of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Nora Vike

—Scott Photo

From way up on Bridge Street we hear rumors of a dark horse in The Eagle Subscription Campaign. This dark horse is Nora Vike. She had a slow start but she has regained control of the situation and is really showing her sales ability in no small way. Residents want Nora to win so they are clamoring to enter the ground floor where the bargain prices prevail.

To Raise Funds—

The Radio Club, an activity group of the Vernonia high school is sponsoring a dance this Friday evening at the high school gymnasium for the purpose of raising funds for the placing of the group's picture in the high school annual when it is published. The school orchestra will play for the affair.

Easter Guests—

Johnny Plymale

—Scott Photo

Johnny intends that every other candidate shall know that he is in this race and that to be first they are going to have to beat him. He has managed his campaign very efficiently so far and shows every indication of doing so until the last vote is cast. He is working harder than ever these last few days and he's counting on you to save money by paying your subscription to The Eagle before nine o'clock Saturday night and hopes you'll cast your votes for him.

In Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and family attended Easter Sunday services at the Methodist church in Portland.

Purchases Valuable Animal—

Wallace Bergerson purchased a registered short-horn bull last week.

Two Cars Sold—

Announcement was made by the Vernonia Auto Company this week that two new automobiles had been sold so far since Monday.

Easter Guests—

Easter guests at the home of Mrs. Ina Scott were Miss Ailine Niskonen and Mr. Lester Osborne of Portland, and Mr. Woodrow Niskonen of Seattle.

Fail to Locate Body—

An intensive search through Saturday and Sunday failed to bring recovery of the body of Matt Kemp, Kelso fisherman who was drowned when his rowboat was upset in the Cowlitz river near Castle Rock Saturday. Sheriff's deputies dragged the river bottom unceasingly but without success. Mrs. George Shaber is a daughter of Mr. Kemp. Immediate relatives surviving in addition to Mrs. Shaber are Mrs. Emma Kemp, her mother; Woodrow Kemp and Mrs. Walter Libby, brother and sister of Mrs. Shaber. The Kemps are known locally by a number of residents, formerly living at Kelso.

Alma Jean Norman

Alma Jean is a candidate in The Eagle Subscription Campaign who is "going to town" in huge fashion. If she continues the splendid work, during this last week, that she has done in the past two weeks she'll be "riding on down the avenue" on a brand new bicycle. Now, I ask you. What could be sweeter than to buy now at a great saving to you and help this nice looking young lady win a grand prize? Nothing, except perhaps The Eagle which we are offering at such a reasonable price.
