RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

GABRIEL HEATTER will be made honorary president of a nationwide organization composed of men, women and children who have appeared on "We, the People."

Mary Smith, noted screen and radio actress pictured above, has joined the cast of "It Can Be Done," now being heard over CBS Wednesday nights at 10:30 p. m., E. S. T.

Because two members of John Trotter's Music Hall orchestra have been nipped in the shins by Bob Burns' bazooka, the violinists always move back when Bob finishes his solo.

Edgar Bergen is as careful who picks up Charlie McCarthy as most mothers are about who picks up the baby. Charlie is never left alone at rehearsals for his Sunday night program unless he's in his double-locked suitcase.

Andy Devine, gravel-voiced Jack Benny stooge, has officially appointed Denny Devine, newest addition to his family, assistant chief of police of Van Nuys, California. Andy is mayor of the township.

Marek Weber, above, European waltz king, has played with his orchestra in some of the most famous eating places in the world. No wonder his motto is "good food is good health."

Bess Johnson, star of "Hilltop House," plays the new game, "quick wit," with the young members of her cast and is training them to think of the proper work quickly.

Elisse Cooper, above, soloist with Eddie DeLange's orchestra on the Phil Baker show Saturday nights over CBS, is making her debut as a network star in that series. Her work heretofore has been limited to Boston and New York night clubs.

Takes Extended Trip—

Mrs. George F. Clark, Mrs. Floyd L. Watson and John Colquhite, brother of the two ladies, left early last week for an extended tour of southern states. The journey and visits with relatives will consume over a month's time. Drivers for the party during the trip will be Reginald Watson, son of Mrs. Watson; and Maynard Simms, a nephew of Mrs. Clark and of Mrs. Watson, and Maynard them to Alva, Oklahoma, Shreveport, Monroe and Oakdale, Louisiana and Beaumont, Texas, at which points they will visit relatives.

Go to Birkenfeld—

Ten people representing the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary were visitors at Birkenfeld Monday evening at a meeting of the Wauna Post of the Legion at that place. The Wauna post of Clatskanie follows the practice of holding meetings in different places at various times during the year due to its cattered membership. Those attending from Vernonia included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tapp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Biggs and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols.

Visit Here—

Party for Son—

Mrs. Grace Pierce acted as hostess a week ago Tuesday at a birthday party celebrating the fifth anniversary for her son. Guests present for the affair included Jean Tindall, Winnie Kane, Ivan and Billy Mellinger, Arabeth and Jackie Carlson, Peter, Penny and Katherine Nisson, Jack Pierce, Betty Counts, Janet Smith, Nadine Tunnell, Mrs. Neva Christensen, Mrs. Georgia Mellinger, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Louise Nisson, Mrs. Robert Tunnell, Mrs. Herb Counts and the hostess.

by George Nelson, County Agent, lists the dairy herd of C. L. Biggs of Vernonia. Cows in his herd numbered 13, and produced an average 819 pounds of milk and 36.3 pounds of butterfat. Two other herds in the county were listed, that of C. W. Sherman of Seapoose and C. E. Gregory of Gobie with the averages in both herds figuring less than that of the Biggs herd.

Visit Mills—

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wangler and Harold Throp of Salem were visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mills.

No Church Announcement—

Reverend and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone have been ill with the flu for the past week preventing their regular activities connected with the Christian church. No announcement of the coming week's program of the church was available for publication for that reason but it was announced that regular services will be held on the coming Sunday.

Correction—

A story of the Home Makers Conference to be held in St. Helens, announced last week is to be held on the date of April 28 instead of as previously announced. The conference is slated to start at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Judd Greenman is to be in charge of the adult education booth it was stated.

To Hold Bazaar—

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon with 17 members of the class present. A decision of the afternoon was to stage a Mother's Day Bazaar on May 13, Saturday, in the vacant portion of the post office building.
