

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Missionary Society Holds Meeting—

The Missionary Society of the Evangelical church held its regular monthly meeting at the church on Wednesday, June 7. Mrs. Chas. Malmsten was in charge of the program for the day. She led in singing and scripture reading.

Mrs. Eversaul and Mrs. J. W. Nichols favored the group with a vocal duet, "Whispering Hope" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lois Clark.

Mrs. E. J. Douglass spoke on the subject, "Giving Children a World Point of View." She outlined many ways by which we are able to teach children of foreign lands.

Special guests of the society for the day were Miss Dorothy Kirkwood, Miss Mildred George and Mill Deloris George of Reedville. Mildred and Deloris George sang a vocal duet accompanied on the piano by Dorothy Kirkwood.

The business meeting followed after which the Pollyanna Circle served refreshments.

Mrs. Pete Weidman will be in charge of the program at the next meeting and Mrs. Franklin Malmsten will review the book, "Kingdom Come But Not Now."

Mrs. Anderson to Act as Hostess—

Mrs. C. L. Anderson will act as hostess to the O-A bridge club on Thursday afternoon of this week. The afternoon's play will take place at the Anderson home.

Columbia County Day Featured at Home—

Columbia County Day was featured at the Masonic Old-Folks Home in Forest Grove on Sunday, June 11. Counties take turns staging an entertainment for those residing at the home.

The entertainment of the past Sunday was staged by talent from Vernonia, Clatskanie and St. Helens, and included two trumpet solos by Leon Brock, accompanied by Mrs. Elmore Knight, a reading by Frances Childs, and a vocal solo by Barbara Nichols. Clatskanie was in charge of the arrangements necessary in presenting the program.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers—

At the special meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary some time was spent filling out questionnaires after which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mary Jane Schultz; Secretary-Treasurer, Bessie Lincoln; First Vice-President, Ruby Biggs; Second Vice-President, Inez Powell; Executive Committee, Bess Nichols, Clara Kerns and Lola Nance. Mary Jane Schultz and Julia Boeck were elected as delegates to the state convention of the American Legion at Salem and Bess Nichols was elected as alternate.

Mary Jane Schultz, Lona Weidman and Inez Powell are on the committee for a cooked food sale to be held in the near future.

A motion was passed to discontinue the meetings until the first Monday in September; the next regular meeting on June 19 being cancelled.

Grandma Dunlap Celebrates Birthday—

On Friday evening some friends representing the American Legion and Auxiliary called on Grandma Dunlap of Riverview to help her celebrate her birthday.

Each presented her with a gift, including two birthday cakes, one from her son's wife, Nellie Dunlap, and the other from Mrs. Isabel Culbertson.

After spending a pleasant evening visiting, they partook of a luncheon of cake and ice cream before departing.

Although ninety years young and not able to get about very well, Grandma Dunlap lives alone and does her own housework. She is very alert mentally, has an excellent memory, is optimistic and humorous.

She is a Nehalem valley pioneer and has a host of admiring friends.

Those who spent the evening with her were Mr. and Mrs. Noble Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson; Mesdames Alma Sitts, Ruby Peters, Francis Fonder, Inez Powell, Fern Kullander, Juanita Timmons and Julia Boeck.

Study Club Holds Last Meeting—

The final meeting of the current year of the Vernonia Study Club took the form of a picnic held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Sandon. Due to inclement weather the luncheon was served indoors to club members and several guests including Mrs. Troy, a former member; Miss McCrae, sister of Wallace McCrae and Mrs. Alva Ward of Montgomery, Alabama. Also Mrs. Sandon's mother, Mrs. Ward.

An informal business meeting was held following the delightful luncheon. The main topic of discussion being the program for the coming year. An outline was submitted and approved and the final arrangements were left to the program committee.

Concluding the afternoon three club members who had made a visit to Canada during the recent visit of the King and Queen of England gave interesting highlights of their trip. Their vivid descriptions were very entertaining.

News of the Theatre

DOUBLE ESCAPE—

"Hopalong Cassidy," America's most popular outdoor action hero, has two narrow escapes in the new range thriller, "Renegade Trail," which opens Saturday at the Joy Theatre. The first is from Cupid's arrow, as personified by Charlotte Wynters, William Boyd's newest leading lady. The second escape is from a band of desperate Arizona outlaws, led by Russell Hopton and Roy Barcroft. Boyd beats both "maniacs"! In eluding both Cupid's arrow and the desperados, Boyd is aided by his two popular companions of the saddle, "Windy Helliday" and "Lucky Jenkins," played again by George Hayes and Russell Hayden.

ATTACK AIMED AT EX-G-MAN TURROU—

A case of mistaken identity was credited by Leon G. Turrou, former ace G-Man, with having saved him from probable serious injury. Turrou, who acted as technical advisor on the Warner Bros. picture, "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," at the Joy Theatre Sunday, disclosed that a doctor living in his Hollywood apartment house stepped from the building one night to be met by an assault by an unidentified man.

The man struck the doctor on the right arm, severely bruising it. The doctor, whose name Turrou declined to divulge, fought off his assailant. Turrou said there was a decided resemblance between him and the doctor and that he felt the attack was intended for him.

FRIENDS UNITED ON SCREEN FIRST TIME—

Although they have been friends since boyhood, Brandon Tynan and John Barrymore never appeared together in a play or picture until Tynan was cast in "The Great Man Votes," in which Barrymore is appearing for RKO Radio.

In his many years on the stage and screen, Tynan appeared with Ethel and Lionel Barrymore and with their uncle, John Drew, but never with John Barrymore. Well known on the American and English stage both as an actor and a playwright, Tynan made his film debut two years ago in "Parnell," and scored an immediate success. His most recent film was "Youth Takes a Fling."

ROY HAS NAME CHANGED TWICE—

Roy Rogers, cowboy star of "Shine On Harvest Moon," scheduled to open Tuesday at the Joy Theatre for a run of one day, has been re-named twice.

He started out in life as Leonard Slye, but changed his name to Dick Weston for radio work. When he embarked upon his screen career at Republic the moniker was once more revamped into "Roy Rogers." "Shine On Harvest Moon" presents Rogers along with an impressive supporting cast in a rip-roaring story of the wide open spaces.

SOLD FOR $2, DOG NOW EARNS $150 WEEKLY—

Sold by his owner for $2 because he outgrew the apartment in which they lived, Von, a 150-pound Great Dane now earns $150 a week in the movies. Currently, Von is playing an important role in RKO Radio's "Next Time I Marry" in which Lucille Ball, James Ellison and Lee Bowman have the top roles. He starts out as Ellison's pet and bodyguard, but winds up as Lucille's slave.

According to Henry East, owner and trainer of Von, his original owners purchased him when he was five weeks old and had an idea he would grow into an animal the size of a small pony. When his appetite threatened to bankrupt the family and his bulk crowded his owner out into the hall, they decided to sell him. East offered $2 and got the dog.

"MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY" A YEAR IN PREPARATION—

Proclaimed the greatest of all sea dramas, "Mutiny on the Bounty" opens Thursday at the Joy Theatre.

Aside from entertainment, it presents an authentic visual document of one of the most notable chapters of maritime history—the mutiny on the H. M. S. Bounty one hundred and fifty years ago.

In the annals of the sea there is no more fascinating story than that told of the Bounty which set sail from England in 1787, bound for Tahiti.

In charge was Lieutenant Bligh, a harsh taskmaster. Storms lengthened the voyage, food ran low and Bligh's temper increased, he raged at his underfed and embittered crew. The golden days that followed the arrival at Tahiti temporarily quieted his men, but shortly after the start of the return voyage Bligh's tyranny brought rebellion to the breaking point and his men rose in mutiny.

Then followed adventures that have never since had their equal in naval history; Bligh and his eighteen loyal seamen sailing 4,000 miles in an open boat; escaped mutineers seeking refuge with their native wives; Bligh's return and the capture of several of the mutineers; another shipwreck and Bligh again in an open boat at the mercy of the sea on a 3,500 mile cruise; and the final naval court-martial back in England with all its tragedy and faded hopes.
