Birthday Party Honors Grandson—

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Mellinger were hosts at a birthday party at their home Sunday in honor of their grandson, Billy Ellis, on his third birthday. Those who also enjoyed the party were Billy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellis of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mellinger and daughter Joan, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kaphammer and sons, Eddie, Dickie and Eugene, and Jimmy Emmons. As a lunch they had the birthday cake, ice cream and punch.

Rebecca Convention Held at Rainier—

The 18th annual Rebecca convention District No. 5 was held in Rainier on June 21, with a good representation from all lodges in the county, including Westport, and visitors from Longview, Kelso, Bay City and Cathlamet, Washington.

The grand officers attending were Alma Henderson, president of the Rebecca Assembly of Oregon; O. F. Steele, grand master I.O.O.F.; Mary Lane, president; Madeline Rossner, grand marshal; Viola Jones, grand conductor; Nettie Greenough, an international officer and Christine McCormick, publicity chairman. The afternoon session opened with Mt. Heart No. 243 seating the convention officers who were past chairman, Jennie Merrill, St. Helens No. 217, chairman; Mertie DeBast, Fern No. 133; vice chairman, Merta Jean Lyons, La France No. 156; secretary, Zaida E. Styke, Fern No. 133; marshal, Alice Smith, Fern No. 133; conductor, Lydia Erickson, La France No. 155; chaplain, Sally Brown, Mt. Heart No. 243; musician, Florence McDonald, Mt. Heart No. 243.

Our president, Alma Henderson, gave a very pleasing address and past president, Mary Lancaster, talked of early conventions of the lower Columbia District, and O. F. Steele, grand master, gave a very interesting talk on the duties of Odd Fellowship. Maude Salomonsen of Mt. Heart won the obligation contest by the vice-grand, and Ruby Biggs was elected vice-chairman of the 1940 convention to be held at Clatskanie.

The evening meeting was opened with a program of music and dancing numbers followed by a drill by the Mt. Heart lodge. The different lodges took part in exemplifying the degree which was very entertaining and instructing.

After closing, lunch was served

RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

who is trying to make Susan forget her missing husband and marry him. Griggs boasts a long career in radio, having played three years in "Roses and Drums."

Bob Burns' weekly story in the Thursday night Music Hall is never heard until the broadcast itself. After the rehearsal, Bob makes notes on the back of an envelope. Then he does the spot and several times before going on the air with it.

reason she's counting the days until June 17. Daddy Jack has promised that after that date she won't have to take afternoon naps any more!

Cecil B. DeMille, famed Radio Theatre producer, got restless while vacationing in New York and dropped into his sponsor's daytime serial rehearsal. He soon found himself giving the cast of the "Dr. Susan" program pointers on acting.

Mary Harris, Phil Baker's hard working secretary, pegs every laugh on the accordionist's Thursday preview under three classifications: the pipisquak, chortle and lollapalooza. Gags creating lollapaloozas always stay in script for the Saturday air show.

With the serial of domestic life just starting its ninth year on the air, NBC's "One Man's Family" once more has Beth Holly in its cast. Beth, the romantic interest of Paul Barbour, is played by Barbara Jo Allen, above.

Erza Stone is an autograph collector and has thousands of signatures. However, he collects them from high school boys and girls who attend his Kate Smith programs and "What a Life" stage show, rather than from celebrities.

Don Goddard, commentator heard on the "Farm Radio News" over the NBC-Blue network daily at 1:15 p. m., e. d. s. t., is exceptionally well trained for his job. Don was born on a farm and knows the farmers' problems. He is also a veteran newspaperman and knows story values.

in the dining room and the sisters said good by, hoping to all meet at Clatskanie next year.

Press committee: Clara Cohoon, Elin Berglund, Grace Currie.

Local Couple Married Saturday—

On Saturday, June 17, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Byers, Weston Steeley and Mrs. Grace Ray motored to Stevenson, Washington, where Mrs. Ray and Mr. Steeley were united in marriage. Both young people are well known in this vicinity, Mrs. Steeley being a sister of Mrs. Buster Byers and Mr. Steeley being employed at the O-A. mill.

BINO HOME BURNED COMPLETELY SATURDAY AFTERNOON

TIMBER—(Special to The Eagle)—The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bino burned to the ground Saturday afternoon. All the furniture and household goods were carried to safety but no insurance was carried. Mr. Bino had just completely stained and shaked his house and had added a new bath room. They moved into the Branson house, formerly owned by the Vicks.

At the school board meeting last week Miss Patricia Johnson of Reedsport was selected as intermediate teacher for the coming school year. Miss Johnson is now attending the normal school at Mt. Angel.
