

MIST RESIDENTS PAY MANY VISITS DURING WEEKEND

MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—The Misses Goldie Keaton, Elaine Loudon and Evelyn Parkenon spent three days during the 4th holidays at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hall and child left Saturday morning for San Francisco for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bridgers and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keaton spent Sunday at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jones expect to spend the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George at Natal.

Bud Keaton and Geo. Holding went to Molalla over the 4th to take in the rodeo.

L. Kirkstrom came home from Taft last week to spend a week, or two with his family here.

Kenneth Smith and wife and Bonnie Jean left Saturday for California to see the fair at San Francisco.

Mrs. Melvin DeRock is having a touch of asthma this week.

Vern Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Ferguson, from Puget Sound, is making a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Melis.

Miss Bernice Updike was a guest over the weekend from Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Melis of Meadow Brook farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Doran from Seattle, wealthy foundry owner, stopped off to visit the Irving Knowles folks during the weekend. They had been called south by the death of Mrs. Doran's father.

The Wm. Keaton family spent the Fourth at Jantzen Beach.

Mrs. Fred Siegenthaler and son, Arthur, were shoppers the last of the week in the village.

We have greetings from Donald Sundland today as he was about to start for Death Valley. He left some three weeks ago for California, for a vacation.

Mrs. Austin Dowling and son, Bernard, and Florence, motored to Salem and returned over the 4th. They went by way of Gaston, Newberg and returned home by way of Vancouver and down the Washing-

RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

ELEANOR PHELPS, star of the CBS serial, "The Life and Love of Dr. Susan," has one unfulfilled ambition—she wants to see an oper-

Supervision of production on the Kate Smith Hour is sharply divided between Ted Collins and Kate Smith. When the music is being shaped up, Collins seldom has anything to say. In preparation of the dramatic spots, Kate leaves everything to her partner, Ted.

Jane Froman, shown below, has returned to the air as star of that Sunday night program heard at 7:30 p. m., E. D. S. T., over CBS. She has just come back from a long vacation ation. All her doctor friends have refused to arrange it, fearing that the experience might be too much for her.

Bob Burns is experimenting with a new musical instrument he calls the "whatsit." It consists of a wire, a zinc tub, and a long handle which changes the tone. As soon as the Sage of Van Buren becomes proficient in manipulating it, he'll try the device out on the Music Hall audience.

Raymond Paige and his 99 men are heard regularly on CBS on Friday nights now, but the girl is a different one each week. Outstanding among the guests Paige presents with his unusual orchestral arrangements is Mary Eastman, opera star, pictured above.

Peter Van Steeden, maestro of "For Men Only," receives more applications for employment than perhaps any other orchestra leader in radio. Peter explains this on the grounds that on "For Men Only" the musicians get a chance to meet outstanding celebrities, and on his other show, Fred Allen's, work becomes fun.

In the South, where she played tennis and landed a fifty-pound amberjack while fishing off the coast of Miami. Erno Rapee's orchestra will accompany her on the new series.

When it comes to legal questions, Joe DuMont, radio's "Josh Higgins of Finchville," has the answers. His education includes a law course, taken to acquaint him with his rights and limitations rather than with an eye toward future practice.

Katherine Stevens is the new Cinderella girl of radio. Discovered by a writer on Radio Guide magazine, who told Director Ed Wolfe about her, she was auditioned for a part in "Pepper Young's Family." She won the job and is now one of the featured players in the Monday through Friday NBC serial.

Now that the grand and glorious Fourth is over next comes haying, when the rain lets the sun out long enough to make hay.

Mrs. Al Becker returned from the hospital last week accompanied by her infant daughter, Patricia Jean, who arrived while she was at the hospital.

Your humble correspondent was presented recently with two most unique pitchers to add to her collection. One of them was from Holland, representing tulips; the other was very unusual and of much interest. We have a pitcher collection which is most unusual, about 100 are over 100 years old. We also have one from Japan brought over many years ago, another about the tiniest we have ever seen, several from Mexico, also.
