Scout Patrols Name Officers Saturday Eve.

The purpose of the scout meeting held Saturday evening, July 8, was to elect officers for the Wolf and Flying Eagle patrols to serve for the coming year. At the same time it was decided to hold scout meetings starting at 7 o'clock on the evening of the meeting date.

Of the Wolf patrol, Walter Parcelis was named as leader and Fred Thompson assistant. At a second meeting held Monday evening of this week the members of that patrol decided to employ the use of bicycles for their activities. The group will organize a bicycle ambulance and carry on first aid work. The patrol will leave Saturday on a Saturday night camping trip on Pebble Creek. The meetings for the Wolf patrol are to be held on Monday evenings at 7:30.

The Flying Eagle patrol elected Edgar Culbertson as patrol leader and George Johns his assistant. The patrol will have its meeting on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p. m. They plan to have a patrol den in the workshop of the Vernonia Memorial Cemetery and plan to erect there a signaling system to signal to the Wolf patrol which will have a receiving tower on the east side of the city.
