Rebekahs Hold Installation

The Mountain Heart Rebekah lodge held a very successful installation the evening of July 13. Cecile McDonald, district deputy president, assisted by deputies Ella Cline, Mae Mellinger, Grace Currie, Selma Webb, Ruby Biggs, Claudina Banta and Sally Brown, installed the following officers into their respective chairs: past grand Elizabeth Kobertson; noble grand, Maude Selmonson; vice grand, Dorothy Sandon; secretary, Zoe Whitell; treasurer, Vera Willard; chaplain, Mary Kaphammer; R. S. N. G., Mae Mellinger; L. S. N. G., Grace Currie; B. S. V. G., Maude Duncan; L. S. V. G., Claudina Banta; warden, Louise Kilby; conductor, Katherine Reichard; inside guardian, Mary Pemblo; outside guardian, Ella Cline.

The past noble grand gave a nice remembrance to each of her officers and she was presented with a past grand pin by the lodge.

The new noble grand received a beautiful wrist watch from her husband and other gifts from some of the members. After closing, ice cream, coffee, and cake were served on tables decorated with roses and sweet peas.

Brother Brown announced that the Vernonia Odd Fellows and Rebekahs would have a picnic at Short Sand Beach July 30th, and we are all looking to a jolly good time on that day.

Plans Made for Smorgasbord

The Mountain Heart club met at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Sandon July 18, and after the business meeting enjoyed a picnic lunch. They made plans for their annual smorgasbord to be held in the I.O.O.F. hall, Friday, October 27.

Those present were, Sally Brown, Florence McDonald, Mae Mellinger, Edna Lind, Evelyn Heath, Zoe Whitell, Claudina Banta, Mary Pemblo, Maude Selmonson, Dodo Lachne and Dorothy Sandon, hostess. Mrs. Grace Mellinger and children were guests of the club.

Quilting Club Enjoys Picnic

The West Side Quilting Club members enjoyed a picnic last Tuesday which occupied the entire day spent at Arcadia Park. During a part of the time spent there the ladies were instrumental in repairing the park benches to make them more serviceable for future use. Those present for the day were Mrs. Louis Laramore, Mrs. Ed Patten, Mrs. Jim Moberg, Mrs. Mable Mitchell, Mrs. Lee Bundy and Miss Katherine Thompson of Yamhill.

Friendship Circle Has Dinner

The Friendship Circle held their hot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Mabel Graves Thursday, July 13th. Members present were Mrs. Alice Crawford, Mrs. Minnie Malmgren, Mrs. Ida Condit, Mrs. Will Chalmers, Mrs. Mabel Myers, Mrs. Blanche Mills, Mrs. Nan Crume, Mrs. Trilla Anderson, and Mrs. Bertie Bassett.

Shower Given Mrs. Johnson

Mrs. George Johnson was the honor guest at a shower given Wednesday afternoon of last week. Those present were Grace Armstrong, Sylvia Brady, Mrs. Ed Frazer, Mrs. Bergerson, Mrs. Hodgson, Beatrice Baucus and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Parcels and daughter, Ethel; Mrs. George Baker and daughters, Alice and Patricia; Mrs. Blongle, Viola Carrick, Hazel Shipman and Mrs. Dave Marshall.

Farewell Picnic Held for Gowens

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Olin were present last Friday at the park atop the O-A hill for a picnic held in honor of Rowland and Mrs. Vincent Gowen who have been visiting in this country for the past year. The Gowens left Sunday for the Philippine Islands.

MEASELS REPORTED IN MIST; WELL FAILS TO PRODUCE WATER

MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—Irving Knowles was a Forest Grove visitor Sunday, going in to see Mrs. Knowles who is in the hospital at Forest Grove.

Bernard Dowling went to Portland Saturday to see the doctor.

Jessie George was calling on the neighbors Tuesday delivering berries.

The men with the well drill went to a depth of one hundred and fifty feet once and no water, on the Label farm. They are now digging a well for Wm. Bridgers.

Little Jean Melvin is spending a week or two with her grandmother at Tide Water.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dowling were down from Buxton and Mrs. Dowling spent the day with her son, James Joyce, and wife, also Mrs. A. Melvin, her daughter.

We note with regret the passing of an old acquaintance, Charlie Bee, in a Portland hospital. He has been ailing for some years.

There seems to be some blackberries here and there, and the ladies of the neighborhood are gathering some.

Merl Jones and her sister, Joan, have returned from a two weeks visit at Seaside with their mother. Evelyn Parkinen is assisting at the Knowles home, helping Eunice Larson do the work, while Mrs. Knowles is ill.

Bernard Dowling went to work Monday morning driving a logging truck for the Matthews Bros. after a six weeks period of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lane attended the show Friday night at Clatskanie.

Mrs. Alfred Popham was a Sunday visitor at the Dowling home. She lives in Astoria.

Measles have made their appearance in the village again, some of the younger set being confined at home with them.

C. O. Hayden went to Portland Friday night to see the ball game.

A travelling motion picture concern stopped off a couple of nights here and gave a motion picture show in the gymnasium Monday and Tuesday. It was reported as real good.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bridgers and Floyd Lebel were Portland visitors Friday evening at the ball game.

Link Lillock is boarding at the Knowles home.

VISITS, VISITORS NUMEROUS; OLD ACQUAINTANCE RENEWED
RIVERVIEW—(Special to The Eagle)—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zeiner and family spent Sunday in Portland at the Oaks Amusement Park. Ernest Williams now in the meat market for Oliver Graves is renewing an old friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Nels Chambers. They were acquainted previously in New York City where Mr. Williams operated a market.

John and Walter Chambers were in Longview visiting friends last week.

Juno Woods is visiting her grandmother in California.

Charles Eversaul and family drove to Seaside Sunday.

Dorothy Hillstine spent the weekend here with Mrs. Ernest Gwin, canning berries, then left for Portland for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Magoff spent the weekend with J. M. Runzer and family in Portland.

Lyle Holt, Tom Gattson, Al Roberson and Winston and Eldon Walker were deep sea fishermen Sunday.

Winston caught a ling cod. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lynch left recently for Idaho to visit for a few days. Margaret Haman and Donald Bell are in charge of the store operated by Mrs. Lynch.

Mrs. Ernie Robbins has planned to move to the Bert Hawkins former residence.

Miss Arlie Buckner has gone to Missouri to visit her father.
