FIVE YEARS AGO—
A caucus for nominating a mayor, treasurer, one councilman for two years and two councilmen for four years is to be held in the Legion hall Friday, was the announcement by Recorder C. F. Heiber.
A petition having 40 names was filed Wednesday with the city recorder to refer to a vote of the people at the November election Ordinance 202 authorizing settlement of the case of the City of Vernonia against H. E. McGraw by transferring to the city the title to the Bank of Vernonia building and the golf course.

TEN YEARS AGO—
Paul Robinson, founder of The Vernonia Eagle, who recently sold his paper, the Scappoose Register, to Ira Hyde of St. Helens will start next Friday to publish the Multnomah Citizen, a weekly covering the Multnomah and Capitol Hill districts.
G. W. Johnson, manager of the Vernonia Service Station, will be placed in charge of the New Early garage and show room now under construction at the corner of Bridge street and Rose avenue.
A state health officer offered his services to the city to determine the source of typhoid fever cases in the city.
The O-A Lumber Corporation built a roof over the carrier dock at the west end of its property. The dock is to provide space for storing lumber which has been run through the planing mill and is awaiting shipment.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—
The O-A mill started operation in Vernonia. Members of the city council and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce were guests at the plant.

"To Daddy"
Title of Poem
By Edna Engen

The following poem is one written by Mrs. Edna Engen and published recently in the Poets Corner of the Sunday edition of the Oregon Journal. The poem is reprinted below:

"TO DADDY"
They told us 'time would heal our wounds
When you left us behind.
They said, Take up your daily life
And occupy your mind.
They said our grief would surely fade,
That time would do its part;
But they forgot that, though time heals,
It leaves an empty heart.

Substantial Gains Made by 4,100 Oregon Farm Families

More than 4,100 Oregon farm families have been enabled to increase their net worth, over and above all debts, by $508.00 per family through the Farm Security Administration's program of supervised credit, announces Walter A. Duffy, National Director.
"One of the primary aims of the FSA program is to enable borrowers to produce practically all their food supplies as well as livestock feed on the farm so that cash expenditures for such items will be reduced to the minimum," Duffy said. "Progress of these farm families is indicated by the fact that they increased supplies of fruits and vegetables canned by 198, milk produced for home consumption by 306 gallons, meat for home use by 214 pounds, and eggs produced for the home by 80 dozen, per family. This means a contribution to the annual cash income of the farm from $200 to $300 per family."
These families have already repaid $1,154,000 of the $4,089,850 loaned by the Farm Security Administration, although most of the loans are made for a five year period. Full repayment of loans has been made by 514 families and 91.8 per cent of maturities due have been met.
While many of these farmers are owner-operators, almost 800 of them have been enabled to ob-

Two Bulletins Available at Agents Office

Potato, Vegetable Growers May Get Info on Control of Insects

Two bulletins that are of special interest to potato and vegetable growers at this time of year are the station circular of information, No. 172, and the extension bulletin 496. The former, entitled "Potato Flea Beetle Control," gives the latest information in regard to the control of the potato flea beetle. The latter, entitled "Vegetable-Garden Insect-Pest Control," gives specific information in regard to controlling a number of garden insects that are troublesome to the average farmer.
These bulletins can be obtained by communicating with the county agent's office at St. Helens.
