

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Peachey-Englesy Wed Sunday

A very beautiful wedding occurred on Sunday afternoon at the Christian parsonage, the contracting parties were Mr. Elmer Englesy and Miss Lorraine Peachey. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peachey of this city.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a dusty pink crepe silk dress, and the ceremony was performed before an altar draped in white tulle, decorated with sweet peas and summer chrysanthemums.

The only guests were the immediate families of the contracting parties.

The service was read by Rev. W. O. Livingston, pastor of the First Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Englesy will reside on First Avenue of this city.

DeHarts Celebrate 21st Anniversary

The 21st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. DeHart was celebrated recently at their home by a surprise party by a few relatives and friends. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the guests and a 12-piece silver set was given to Mr. and Mrs. DeHart.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. DeHart, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lange, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. DeHart and two children, and Elders Nelson and Childs. Mrs. George Bell, Mrs. Dick Lynch and Mrs. George Wood were invited but unable to attend.

Shower Given Miss McKenzie

A bridal shower was given Miss Katherine McKenzie recently by Mrs. Frank Lange and Mrs. T. L. DeHart acting as hostesses at the Lange home. A friendship quilt was started for the honor guest, a pattern being given each one present for the day. Refreshments were served the guests.

Those present were Mrs. Mike Stolen, Mrs. Frits Havelor, Mrs. Walter Ervon, Mrs. M. B. Willard, Mrs. J. W. McKenzie, Christina McKenzie, the honor guest and hostesses. ### RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

UCILLE MANNERS, soprano star of the Friday night NBC concert hour, is achieving honors in other fields. Lucille was selected Queen of Winter by Lake Placid, and won a New York City contest for pie baking.

Kathleen Wilson, above, who is Claudia in "One Man's Family," recently played a realistic role on the program. In the drama she was to be sick in bed. Driving her car to rehearsal, she was in an accident and injured her knee. She did the broadcast from a wheel chair and actually had to go to bed for four days after the program.

As a result of his daily broadcasts on "Getting the Most Out of Life," Dr. William L. Stidger has discovered what happened to ten former classmates of his. They have all written letters recalling the old days. They were classmates in the first grade, incidentally.

Before George Murphy, master-of-ceremonies of the new Screen Guild Show on CBS, turned to stage work and stardom on Broadway, he worked as a tool maker in an automobile plant, in real estate, as a miner and a night club dancer.

Kate Smith, on her Thursday night show, often finds opportunity to prove her versatility. If Ted Collins, who usually gives stage cues, is otherwise occupied, Kate steps in and gives the necessary directions.

Anderson Visitors—Visitors at the C. L. Anderson home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davidson and daughter, Doris, from Portland.

Looking up famous marionette and puppet shows around New York, Mary Margaret McBride got a big surprise when she found herself in miniature—a namesake puppet, even dressed in her famous studio outfit of dark tailored dress with white cuffs and collar.

Head of Dave "Hobby Lobby" Eiman's research division is Roberta Semple, daughter of the evangelist, Almee Semple McPherson. Roberta was a guest on the program recently, brought from California to lobby for her hobby of collecting rare and ancient perfumes. She is the one "Hobby Lobby" guest who never went home.

Raymond Paige, above, is bringing radio's largest musical series to the microphones on Wednesday nights over the CBS network with the broadcasts starting Feb. 22. Paige is presenting one hundred male musicians and a girl vocalist.

Edgar A. Guest's "It Can Be Done" program over CBS Wednesday nights is now being heard at 10:30 p. m., E. S. T. Musical figures who have appeared with Eddie recently include Maestro Andre Kostelanetz and Carrie Jacobs Bond, the composer.

Martha Raye, pictured here, is heard every Tuesday night on the Al Jolson show over the CBS network. Martha's vocalizing and comedy lines have resulted in stardom in the movies as well as on the air.

vice will be held at the regular time.

There will be no evening preaching service.

The regular prayer meeting and Bible study will be held Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.
