

FRIENDS ENTERTAINED AT TURNER HOME ON BIRTHDAY OCCASION

(Held Over From Last Week)

STONEY POINT — (Special to The Eagle)—Mrs. Thos. Turner entertained a number of friends one evening last week at her home in honor of her husband's 43rd birthday. Pinochle was enjoyed during the evening in which Mrs. M. B. Willard and Frank Lange won high prizes respectively, and Mrs. Frank Lange and Carl Davis received the consolation prizes. Mr. Turner received many useful and attractive gifts. A delicious lunch consisting of fruit, jello, cake and coffee was served at midnight. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Justice, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michener, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Willard and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Turner.

Mrs. Bert DePue and daughter, Margaret, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindberg to Mt. Hood Sunday.

Miss Thelma Wilkerson returned to her home Thursday evening from Medford where she has been visiting with relatives. Mrs. Gladys Ray of Medford brought her home.

Miss June Michener and Ellis Woolbridge spent the weekend with relatives and friends in Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Mellinger attended the Territorial Days celebration in Oregon City and also visited with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Ellis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kirkbride spent Tuesday in Portland and Vancouver, Washington, on business.

Thos. Turner motored to Portland Monday morning taking Sam Scott in, where they met the latter's sister, who arrived from Waukegan, Michigan, to make her home with her brother for the present.

Miss June Woods returned home from Watsonville, California, where she spent most of the summer with her grandparents. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Woods and Wm. Woods motored to Portland after her.

Mrs. Lex Taylor returned from Aberdeen, Washington, Monday where she had gone to attend the funeral of a relative.

The members of the Aksarben club gathered at the home of Mrs. Glen Bodell on Stony Point road last Wednesday afternoon and surprised her with a miscellaneous shower. Many lovely and attractive gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bodell and sons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis and sons and Frank Davis motored to Portland Saturday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindberg and children of Swenson were weekend visitors at the Bert DePue home.

LEGAL NOTICES

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF COLUMBIA

Case No. 3711

In the Matter of the Liquidation of the BANK OF VERNONIA, Vernonia, Oregon

NOTICE OF SALE OF REMAINING ASSETS OF BANK OF VERNONIA, IN LIQUIDATION

Pursuant to an order made by the above entitled Court, notice is hereby given that the Superintendent of Banks of the State of Oregon, will sell the assets remaining in the liquidation of the Bank of Vernonia, Vernonia, Oregon, to the highest bidder for cash, excepting cash on hand and all assigned deposit claims against the said bank. Separate bids will be received for the assets of the Commercial Department as a whole or for separate items thereof, and for the assets of the Savings Department as a whole or for separate items thereof, the bids for the assets in each department to be entirely separate and distinct. Schedules of the assets to be sold are on file and open to inspection in the above entitled Court and matter, and in the office of the Superintendent of Banks at Salem, Oregon.

The Superintendent of Banks reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Any and all bids accepted by the Superintendent of Banks are subject to confirmation by the Court.

All persons who desire to submit bids for the purchase of all or any part of the assets remaining in such liquidation are hereby notified to present sealed bids to the Superintendent of Banks at his office in Salem, Oregon, on or before the 11th day of September, 1939.

Each bid must be accompanied by cash or a certified check for not less than 10% of the amount of the bid and be submitted upon a standard form which will be furnished prospective bidders upon request. Such forms for bids may be obtained from Mark Skinner, Superintendent of Banks, State Office Building, Salem, Oregon.

MARK SKINNER, Superintendent of Banks of the State of Oregon, in charge of the liquidation of Bank of Vernonia, Vernonia, Oregon.

Don't Let Your Faulty Brakes Kill One of Them

When you go home tonight don't say, "Today I killed a child." It can't happen to you—but it does happen to hundreds of drivers every day. A thing so horrible . . . so unthinkable . . . but mothers and fathers are told every day, "Your child was killed" . . . and practically every time the finger of blame can be pointed at a driver with faulty brakes.

DON'T RUN THE RISK

BRAKE SERVICE

Don't risk your own life or the life of others through negligence on your part. A complete brake inspection and repair now will save you money and may save a life!
