RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

LUCILLE MANNERS, soprano star of the Friday night NBC concert hour, is achieving honors in other fields. Lucille was selected Queen of Winter by Lake Placid, and won a New York City contest for pie baking.

Kathleen Wilson, above, who is Claudia in "One Man's Family," recently played a realistic role on the program. In the drama she was to be sick in bed. Driving her car to rehearsal, she was in an accident and injured her knee. She did the broadcast from a wheel chair and actually had to go to bed for four days after the program.

As a result of his daily broadcasts on "Getting the Most Out of Life," Dr. William L. Stidger has discovered what happened to ten former classmates of his. They have all written letters recalling the old days. They were classmates in the first grade, incidentally.

Before George Murphy, master-of-ceremonies of the new Screen Guild Show on CBS, turned to stage work and stardom on Broadway, he worked as tool maker in an automobile plant, in real estate, as a miner and a night club dancer.

Kate Smith, on her Thursday night shows, often finds opportunity to prove her versatility. If Ted Collins, who usually gives stage cues, is otherwise occupied, Kate steps in and gives the necessary directions.

Looking up famous marionette and puppet shows around New York, Mary Margaret McBride got a big surprise when she found herself in miniature—a namesake puppet, even dressed in her famous studio outfit of dark tailored dress with white cuffs and collar.

Head of Dave "Hobby Lobby" Elman's research division is Roberta Semple, daughter of the evangelist, Aimee Semple McPherson. Roberta was a guest on the program recently, brought from California to lobby for her hobby of collecting rare and ancient perfumes. She is the one "Hobby Lobby" guest who never went home.

Raymond Paige, above, is bringing radio's largest musical series to the microphone on Wednesday nights over the CBS network with the broadcasts starting Feb. 22. Paige is presenting one hundred male musicians and a girl vocalist.

Edgar A. Guest's "It Can Be Done" program over CBS Wednesday nights is now being heard at 10:30 p. m., E. S. T. Musical figures who have appeared with Eddie recently include Maestro Andre Kostelanetz and Carrie Jacobs Bond, the composer.

Martha Raye, pictured here, is heard every Tuesday night on the Al Jolson show over the CBS network. Martha's vocalizing and comedy lines have resulted in stardom in the movies as well as on the air.

joined the Army, Dr. Raver has been a devoted public servant. As an engineer, educator, and utility commissioner, he has bent his efforts toward insuring to the people the utility services that are rightfully theirs. His appointment as Bonneville Administrator offers him a direct opportunity to see that the full benefits of America's greatest hydroelectric resources are made available to her people.

"It has been a pleasure to work with members of the Bonneville staff in a temporary capacity, but I welcome the chance to return to the job on which I have spent six continuous years. Grand Coulee, together with Bonneville Dam, shares a major responsibility in the development of the northwest, not merely for the people of Oregon and Washington, but for the hundreds of thousands who are coming westward to seek a livelihood in the American way.

"In the Columbia river are the power and water that can raise living standards for all of us. Unselfish development of these great federal projects can expand industrial and agricultural opportunity and provide a new measure of economic security. It will be a privilege for me to work with Dr. Raver toward that goal."

Dr. Paul Raver Lauded as Administrator

Banks Expresses Confidence in Newly Appointed Bonneville Head

Acting Administrator F. A. Banks today expressed confidence that Dr. Paul J. Raver, newly appointed Bonneville chief, will carry forward vigorously the federal policy of making Columbia river power available to residents throughout the entire northwest.

"Secretary Ickes has selected a man whose entire career is a record of public service," Banks said. "From the time of his graduation as an engineer in 1917, when he
