SCHOOL DAYS ARE HAPPY DAYS—

LAST TUESDAY marked the opening date in many schools of the nation for students to return to their classes for another study year following a three-month vacation. In most every instance the "Old Red School House" will have been supplanted by a modern building complete with every fixture and supply necessary to the giving of the highest type of instruction by teachers trained specially for the work. Methods of education changed since the days of the small school house. More instruction of a special nature is given. Each student is given a degree of care and training which was never possible a few years back. But with all the changes which have become evident in the last comparatively few years the students themselves are much the same, for they are children who enjoy childish pleasures along with the work which they must do. Regardless of the change from the freedom of a quarter-year of vacation from studies, school days will prove the most enjoyable days ever spent even though they may not seem so at the time.

JUST A SUGGESTION—BUT PERHAPS IT IS WORTHY—

THE IDEA isn't original with us to be sure so any attempt to assume responsibility for first harboring the thought would be depriving someone else of originality. But to return to the idea, which was heard a short time ago as proposed by a business man of Vernonia, the suggestion was advanced that at some appropriate future time there be staged in the city a soap box derby. Soap box derbies, when staged by other communities under the right circumstances, prove highly successful as an interest-attracting feature for whatever may be in progress at the time whether it be a general celebration or whether it be just that event itself. Vernonia is so situated that the derby could be held with little effort and within the city limits by the use of that portion of Bridge street which leads westward from Rose Avenue over Corey Hill. The street westward from that point assumes a slope which, if paved, would provide the necessary impetus for the miniature racers. The suggestion merits some consideration for its value as a publicity feature for the city at such time as it might be promoted.

WESTPORT GUN CLUB IS ACTIVE—

The Westport-Wauna community is showing much interest in the recently organized Westport Rod and Gun club, a sportsmen's organization, the purpose of which is the propagation and preservation of wild life and to encourage a due respect for existing game laws. The club at present has a membership of 35 and the interest manifested indicates a possibility of this being doubled.

The holding pen where the club is raising young China pheasants is attracting much interest. After getting off to a poor start due to wet weather, the birds are growing very fast and when they are released after the hunting season is closed, will be well able to take care of themselves. Frank Wire, state game supervisor, recently paid the club a visit and treated members to a showing of a movie of wild life, most of which was taken by Mr. Wire himself during his many trips over the state.

A SECOND SUCCESSFUL FIREMEN CELEBRATION—

THE PAST Labor Day weekend saw the completion of the second successful Vernonia Host Days celebration as staged by members of the Vernonia Fire Department. The celebration, staged last year for the first time under the Host Days name, gives to people of the Upper Nehalem Valley a number of events of entertainment at no expense to them. They are invited to attend, enjoy themselves for three days and see the various contests of skill and speed that are outlined for their amusement. This year a somewhat different arrangement was made with one day being given over to the Fraternal Order of Eagles for the staging of an Eagles' Day but the events were of the same entertaining nature to spectators. Practically every city at some time during the year promotes a celebration of some sort in keeping with a custom which has become more and more established during the past few years. For Vernonia to have become the city to stage a celebration which offers free entertainment to those attending is an honor. The success during the past two events makes it possible to continue the practice in future years.

Kohlstrand, 63, who died in his farm home in the McNulty district late Monday afternoon, were held at the Warren Baptist church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with the Rev. E. He was born in Sweden, and came to the United States in 1898, settling in Pennsylvania. He was married to Louisa Johnson at Bitumen, Penn., in 1901, then came to Portland and later settled on a farm at McNulty, where he lived until his death. Mr. Kohlstrand was one of the first active farmers in the McNulty district, devoting his time to dairying and berry culture. He was president of the board of the Farm Loan Association.
