

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

House Warming Held Saturday—

A large group of friends and relations gathered at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Adams at Natal Saturday night for a house warming. An enjoyable evening was spent and a lovely lunch was served after which a purse was presented to the couple to purchase something for their new home, as they lost everything in a fire a few weeks ago.

The music for the evening was furnished by Pete Carrick, Mr. Davis and Ray Baffmire.

A number of friends and relatives from Portland were also present.

Little Dance Club Chairmen Meet—

The chairmen in charge of staging last year's series of Little Dances met Tuesday evening in the Oregon Gas and Electric company office to begin organization procedure for dances during this fall and winter. Further plans and committees will probably be decided upon at a later time.

K of P Gives Page Rank—

Two candidates were given the Page rank by members of the Knights of Pythias last Monday evening. The two candidates were Robert and Clarence Lamping.

O.E.S. Holds Initiatory Degree—

On the evening of September 20th, a large group of local lodge members in addition to visitors from Yamhill and Parkrose Chapter of the Portland Order of Eastern Star witnessed the initiatory degree and a special honor bestowed upon Past Matrons and Past Patrons. There were eight Past Matrons present, among them Mrs. F. D. Macpherson of Portland and Mrs. Ellis McGraw of Forest Grove, and several Past Patrons.

The evening ended in the social hall where a lovely two-course supper was served and a social hour was spent with short talks by many of the guests.

The officers of Nehalem Chapter plan to go to St. Helens on the 26th and to Beaverton on the 30th to attend special meetings.

B & P W Holds Meeting Tuesday—

Members of the Business and Professional Women met Tuesday evening at the Apparel Shop. The business of the evening was a discussion of the program to be followed during the coming season. Financial affairs of the club were also given consideration. The next meeting of the group will be held the second week in October.

Baslingtons Entertain—

Mr. and Mrs. George Baslington entertained a group of friends Sunday with a turkey dinner, marking the beginning of such social events at Trehaner for the winter season. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Lode McDonald and twin sons, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McDonald and Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer and Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Richards, Mr. J. Jones and Mr. Ernest Herman.

Auxiliary, Legion Install Officers—

Members of the Legion Post No. 119 and the Legion Auxiliary held joint installation of officers to serve for the coming year Tuesday evening at the Legion hall.

Auxiliary installation procedures were held first with Mrs. Hazel Thompson of Portland acting as installing officer. Officers placed in the chairs at that time for the auxiliary were: Mrs. A. J. Shultz, president; Mrs. Ruby Biggs, first vice president; Mrs. Inez Powell, second vice president; Mrs. J. C. Lincoln, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Valpiani, historian; Mrs. Earl Preston, chaplain; and Mrs. E. A. Shipman, sergeant at arms. The Post installation conducted by Art Steele of Clatskanie, District Commander of District No. 1, placed in office: Harry Kerns, commander; George Baker, vice commander; J. W. Nichols, adjutant; Harry Culbertson, finance officer; and C. L. Anderson, chaplain.

Stars were also awarded five members for their work in obtaining new members during the past year. A gold star was presented Harry Culbertson for signing to membership over 25 and silver stars were awarded J. E. Tapp, J. W. Nichols, E. A. Shipman and J. C. Lincoln for signing five members or over. The membership at present is 80, it was stated.

In a speech made by past commander J. E. Tapp a report was given of the rating of this post for Annual Americanism and Post Activity. From a possible 1,000 points the local group was awarded 805. These points were gained from six divisions of activity: 1. Americanism and Community Service; 2. Service and Welfare; 3. Club Advancement; 4. Post Organization; 5. Cooperation in Department Legion Affairs; 6. Cooperation in National Legion Affairs.

Picnic Dedicates New Fireplace—

A picnic held Friday evening of last week dedicated the newly constructed fireplace atop the O-A hill. Those present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Holcomb and son, Wayne, Mrs. Alice Estey, Doris Rae Estey, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burnside, Judd Greenman, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kamholz and Mrs. Matthews.

Mrs. Charles Biggs Entertains Circle—

The regular monthly meeting of the Friendship Circle was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Biggs. A pot-luck dinner was served after which a social afternoon was enjoyed.

Members who attended were Mrs. Ruby Biggs, Mrs. Harvey Crume, Mrs. Anderson, Ms. Sidney Malm-ston, Mrs. Everett Wood, Mrs. Louis Boech, Mrs. Philip Mills, Mrs. Francis Fonda, Mrs. Harry Myers and the hostess, Mrs. Charles Biggs.

News of the Theatre

GENE GOES NORTH IN NEW REPUBLIC SCREEN OFFERING—

Gene Autry, who has built up an enviable reputation ridin' herd, roundin' up rustlers and singin' and playin' on his 'gee-tar' now has ridden far afield to seek his cinematic fortunes in the Far North. "Blue Mountain Skies," Republic western which opens Saturday at the Joy Theatre, presents Gene as a cattle man who journeys into Canada to outwit a gang engaged in smuggling white fox furs.

His adventures are entertainingly delineated on the screen, with luscious June Storey for feminine appeal and the ubiquitous Smiley Burnette for comedy effects.

When he discovers that June is co-owner of the dude ranch suspected of complicity in the fur robberies, Gene is at a loss to know what to do. But June soon convinces him that she is unaware of the ranch's participation in the thefts, and cooperates with him in clearing things up.

Big, broad-shouldered Gordon Jones dons boxing gloves easily in Universal's "Big Town Czar," gangland's drama with Barton MacLane and Tom Brown, coming Saturday to the Joy Theatre.

Jones is seen as a young prize fighter in the picture. He plays a central part in a situation that finds a fixed bout participating between rival New York mobs.

While a student at the University of California at Los Angeles, the 195-pound Jones bowled 'em over on the football field and in the collegiate boxing ring.

He does not actually do any fighting in "Big Town Czar," as the boxing match is narrated but not seen. Nevertheless, Jones wears training and fighting togs that fit him to the proverbial T in several key sequences of the story.

DEAD END KIDS WASH FACES—

The Angels With Dirty Faces have cleaned up some and will be seen Sunday at the Joy Theatre in their latest Warner Bros. picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces." The angels, of course, are the famed Dead End Kids—Billy Halop, Bernard Punsley, Leo Gorcey, Huittz Hall, Gabriel Dell and Bobby Jordan.

Slightly reformed and this time on the side of the law, the Dead End Kids are placed in a slum tenement neighborhood. Here, they cooperate with city authorities in bringing to justice a gang of adult criminals.

MAGIC DESCRIBED IN FAUST COMES TO LIFE ON SCREEN—

Ancient books on demonology, to be found in only a few libraries, were sought out by research experts and their strange symbols and cabalistic signs, handed down from superstitions of centuries, were carefully copied to provide authenticity for weird sequences in "Miracles for Sale," detective mystery laid amid professional magicians and ghost-chasers, which comes Tuesday to the Joy Theatre with Robert Young and Florence Rice in the principal roles.

Many of the strange designs went into the set representing the apartment of Dr. Sabbat, mysterious demonologist and murder victim in the picture. The magic pentagon described by Goethe in Faust signs of Hesperus and other figments of demanic lore were used in the apartment in which the voice of Surtag, demon of medieval superstition, was reproduced in a fantastic sequence.

Along with these, modern stage illusion and tricks are used in a maze of bewilderment in the story which Tom Browning, who filmed Dracula and the Lon Chaney mysteries, directed.

ACTION, ROMANCE HIGHLIGHT NEW "BULLDOG" FILM—

The pursuit of a daring bank robber from England to France provides Bulldog Drummond, famous film sleuth, with what is easily the most action-filled and thrilling of all his screen adventures in Paramount's new thriller, "Bulldog Drummond's Bride," opening Tuesday at the Joy Theatre. And taking the implication of the title at face value, the picture is designed to provide more romantic excitement than any other Drummond film.

With that fine young actor, John

Howard, as Drummond once more, and Heather Angel in the role of his long-suffering fiancée, Phyllis Clavering, the plot of the H. C. (Sapper) McNeile story starts to unfold when a daring bank robbery is committed in London. Drummond has promised Phyllis that he will join her on a specified date at a honeymoon cottage in a little town in France where the long-delayed nuptials are to take place. Phyllis has informed him that she will marry a mysterious Mr. Aldergate unless he arrives on time.

"COAST GUARD" DUE AT JOY THEATRE WEDNESDAY—

Little known heroes of peace, members of the United States Coast Guard, are glorified in Columbia's dramatic "Coast Guard," which comes to the Joy Theatre Wednesday in keeping with the importance of the picture and its unusual theme, the studio carefully selected outstanding players for the major parts. The cast is headlined by Randolph Scott, Ralph Bellamy, Frances Dee and Walter Connolly, with featured roles being played by Warren Hymer, Edmund Macdonald and Mala. Edward Dudwig directed the thrilling romance.
