LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Founding of Order Celebrated—

On Thursday of last week the Mountain Heart Rebekah lodge celebrated the founding of the order with an appropriate reading by Dorothy Sandon, and a special program honoring the Past Noble Grands. Each of the fourteen Past Grands present were presented with a nice gift by the Noble Grand, Maude Salomonsen, and with a lovely bouquet from the Vice Grand, Dorothy Sandon.

Evelyn Heath read a poem written for the occasion by Irene Spencer, and verses from the Bible were read by the chaplain, Mary Kaphammer.

After lodge, refreshments of chicken salad, cake and coffee were served on tables decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lum Brown of Goble and Mrs. Viola Treharne from Seaside.

Eunice Russell Honor Guest at Shower—

Mrs. Mary Hall gave a shower Friday afternoon at 2 p. m., for her daughter, Eunice Russell, who is to be married to Delmar Riggle of Buxton, October 7th, in Vancouver, Washington. Those present at the shower were Mrs. Arch Killian, Mrs. Maudie Hall, Mrs. Geneva Killenberg, Mrs. Bessie Stolen, Mrs. Mary Bell, Mrs. Hazel Stevenson, Mrs. Myrtle Stevenson, Mrs. Hilda Enman, Mrs. Virgie Bell, Mrs. Claude Tackett, Mrs. R. A. Weiser, Miss Patricia Pemble, Miss Zelma Shipley and J. R. Hall. Those who sent presents but were unable to attend were Mrs. Rose Eaton, Mrs. Chris Reich and daughters, Lottie and Heidi, Sam Conklin and Mrs. Francis Russell. Many lovely gifts were received.

Missionary Group Holds Wed. Meet—

The Evangelical Missionary Society held its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon in the social hall of the Evangelical church with 70 members and guests present. The hall and tables were decorated by the Martha Circle. The meeting opened with a pot-luck luncheon after which the program and business meeting was held.

Mrs. Walter Thompson, president of the society welcomed the guests and invited them to attend other meetings. Mrs. Wallace McCrae read the composition "The Tie That Binds," written by Elma A. Herdick; the girls sextette of the high school, led by Miss Connell, sang a number; an article entitled "Nile Mother," written by Jerome Beatty was read by Mrs. J. W. Nichols; Maxine John and Opal Schuerman sang a duet; and a poem, "God Light" by Lucille Avery was read by Mrs. Dave Marshall to complete the afternoon's program.

The future meeting of the society will be held on the first Wednesday in November.

Card Party to Be Held at Temple—

A card party is slated for the Masonic Temple Friday afternoon of this week at 1:30 p. m. The party will start with a luncheon after which bridge and 500 will be the afternoon's diversions.

The party is being staged by the Nehalem Social Club.

Home Wedding Solemnized Saturday—

The wedding of Miss Wilma Bailey and Raymond Justice was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Bailey, near Buxton on September 30th at 5 p. m. Rev. R. E. Everett of Portland officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and floor length veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father.

The best man was the bride's brother, John Bailey, and the ring bearer was the groom's young brother, Lonnie Justice. Bridesmaids were Miss Merle Conklin and Miss Hazel Foster who wore gowns of blue and rose and carried bouquets of asters. The maid of honor was Miss Etta Bailey who wore a beautiful gown of pink and carried a mixed colonel bouquet.

The aisle down which the bridal party walked was formed by white ribbons held by the ushers, Herman Peterson of Buxton, and Edward L. Sehorn of Vernonia.

Mrs. Vera Sehorn sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Ruth Griffis, the bride's sister.

Guests from Vernonia were Mr. and Mrs. George Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Justice and sons, Glen and Lonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tisdale and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Tisdale and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sehorn.

Guests from Buxton were Mrs. Emma Williams and family and the bride's family, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey. A wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives and friends following the wedding.

A reception was held later and many more friends and neighbors came. The couple received many beautiful gifts.

The couple left for a two-week honeymoon in California.

Study Club Hears Report—

Members of the Vernonia Study Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Nichols. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

Each member of the club responded to roll call by naming her favorite opera and giving the reason for the choice.

During the business session it was announced that the club had been asked to take charge of the Red Cross annual drive for Vernonia. Mrs. Alice Estey reported on the play "Peer Gynt," written by Henrik Ibsen and the music written for the play by Grieg. As a special feature of the afternoon Miss Alvina Connell sang one of Grieg's selections, "I Love but Thee." The words of the song were written specially for Grieg's wife to sing on her concert tours. Miss Connell was accompanied by Mrs. Marvin Kamholz.

The next meeting of the club will be held October 12 at the home of Mrs. Robert Rushing, at which time Mrs. Ray Mills will review the book "The Age of the Fish," by Odon VanHorvath.

Hunters—

Mason McCoy, Paul Gordon, R. L. Spencer and Wallace McCrae spent part of last Saturday hunting on property of the East Side Logging company.
