RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

FRED ALLEN, pictured here, and his wife, Portland Hoffa, have come closer to going domestic this fall than ever before. Instead of a suite of hotel rooms in which to live, they have decorated an apartment of their own.

Gabriel Heatter, host of "We, the People," believes that if fiction writers were to follow the true-life stories told on his radio show, that they would never suffer a shortage of plots.

Most successful husband and wife team in radio is Edith Meiser and Tom McKnight. She writes the "Sherlock Holmes" tales heard Mondays over NBC and he directs and produces them in Hollywood.

Eleanor Phelps, shown here, invariably spends her spare time around hospitals or going to the poorer sections of New York with visiting nurses. She plays the title role in the CBS serial, "The Life and Love of Dr. Susan."

Erza Stone is probably New York's busiest boy. His program, "The Aldrich Family," is continuing on the air Tuesday nights, and he's also the director of a Broadway comedy for George Abbott, the producer, for whom he starred in the stage play from which his radio show came.

The cry that went up from listeners when the serial, "Those We Love" was removed from the networks last year has been answered. The popular program will replace the last half of the departing Rudy Vallee Hour, "One Man's Family" is in the first half-hour each Thursday.

Mary Livingstone, one of Hollywood's most gracious hostesses, offers this novel trick for breaking the ice at a week-end party: present all guests, upon arrival, with a key to the pantry, just to let them know they're welcome to a snack any time the mood strikes them.

Joe Penner, pictured here, and his tiptop show are back on the airwaves in October. You can hear him with Suzabella and the rest of his funny folks if you tune to NBC's Blue network on Thursday nights. His program comes from Hollywood.

bring them. Children need early Christian training. Every child should be in some Sunday School. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Evangelistic service at 7:45 p. m. Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Ladies Missionary and Prayer Band meets at the church.

ALASKA FOLK VISIT IN TREHARNE; PARTY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

TREHARNE — (Special to The Eagle) — Harry Condit's brother, Frank Condit, of Klamath Falls, who was in an auto accident, is reported on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Ella O'Connor entertained the quilting club at her home last Thursday. Guests besides the club members were Mrs. Elbert Kelly and Elberta of Monmouth, Mrs. John Glassner and Grandma Rogers. Mrs. Rogers entertained the group with stories of her early pioneering in Vernonia. It has been 50 years since she came to this valley. She said it took her two days to come from what is now Cornelius to Vernonia by horse-drawn stage.

Donnie Uhlin celebrated his sixth birthday with a party at his home. Games were played during the afternoon and later refreshments were served to the following: Marietta Hodgson, Theresa, John and Francis Schmidlin, Marvin Smith, Charlie Carrick, John Schram, Mary Lou and Billy Fulton, Leland Moller, Elmer Stanton, Aileen and Donnie Uhlin.

Mrs. Tom Fulton has been sick with the flu the past week but is somewhat better now.

Hulan Thacker made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Sunday guests at the H. E. Schram home were Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Davidson and daughter, Luella, of Willamina, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barrett and daughters of Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Segar and Patricia, Mrs. Elizabeth Mullins, Mrs. Al Backus and Gary, and Ervin Mullins were Saturday evening guests at the George Johnson home. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thomas are spending several days at Summer, Washington.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Segar Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Selliken of Juneau, Alaska, and Mrs. Harvey Truett of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stuart, teachers in Tillamook county, were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sehorn.

Mrs. Wm. Falconer entertained the Pinochle club at her home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porterfield visited at Harry Condit's home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulan Thacker and family and Mrs. Wilbur Thacker and Mildred were Hillsboro business visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nel Jensen were Sunday evening guests at the Harry Condit home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wienecke and Mrs. Wm. Falconer and Mary were Monday visitors at the Otto Stowell home in Buxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tisdale and daughters, Patsy and Florence, and Viola O'Connor attended the stock show in Portland Sunday.

The Nels Jensen family and Joe Johnson of Portland spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Smejkal at Kist.

Jack McDonald is going in for football this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and George attended the home wedding of Mrs. Anderson's brother, Bernard Ortmann, and Ruth Salsbury, both of Forest Grove.

Beulah O'Connor had a bad attack of tonsillitis and is absent from school.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS RETURN SUNDAY; CONCERN GIVES SHOW

MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—Floyd Libel and Carl Ray returned Sunday evening from a two-week visit in California visiting the fair.

Mrs. Wm. Bridgers is getting so as to get around on her sprained ankle pretty good.

Ernest Lane shot a big two point buck Friday, and Sunday he killed a large bear.

A traveling movie picture concern stopped and gave a show Friday and Saturday in the Mist gym. It was very good.

Miss Elaine Lowden returned last week from Spokane where she has been visiting for the past three weeks with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Trotter were up from Elsie Sunday to see her father who is quite ill.

Sonny Wikstrom, his mother, and James Hill went to Portland Sunday to take in the Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

The Austin Melvin family moved their trailer house from the lot where they have been camped all summer. They moved to one of the cottages in Birkenfeld Row.

We have cards from Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sundland of the Mist garage who are touring part of the eastern states. They were in Kansas then and are now headed for Treasure Island in California.

Mrs. Bern Bliss was a visitor in Clatskanie Monday. Mrs. J. O. Libel and Mrs. Chas. Hanson were calling on members of the M. H. C. Tuesday in the interest of the new kitchen equipment.

Miss Goldie Keaton was down from Vernonia where she is working to spend the weekend at home.

Lloyd Sears got a two-point buck last week while on his hunting trip.

Mrs. C. O. Hayden and Mrs. K. Wilson were Clatskanie visitors Monday. They took Mr. A. Dowling to the doctor.

Wm. Keaton butchered his yearling heifer Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith left Saturday for Prineville on a hunting trip.

News of the Theatre

COP HUNTS CONVICTS BY POSING AS ONE!—Featuring Brian Donlevy as a daring detective who poses as a convict in order to convict a gang of murderers and Jacqueline Wells as the sister of the man whose identity he assumes.

"Behind Prison Gates" opens at the Joy Theatre Saturday. Others in the cast of the sensational melodrama of life within the walls of a huge penitentiary are Dick Curtis, Richard Fiske, Joseph Crehan, George Lloyd and Paul Fix.

NEW ANGLE—A fur smuggling story with a timely twist is the fare at the Joy Theatre Saturday, where "Blue Montana Skies," Republic's newest Gene Autry starring vehicle is showing. Gene hasn't deserted the cattle range, but his cowboy activities lead him right into a hornet's nest of smuggling in the current film.

FOOD FOR ACTION—That Maxim of the French Foreign Legion—"When the Captain's belly is full, the company marches like hell!"—was applied with salutary success to the huge troop of actors and technicians which encamped on location in the heart of the California desert to film scenes for Paramount's rousing new version of "Beau Geste," which opens on Sunday at the Joy Theatre, starring Gary Cooper, Ray Milland and Robert Preston. Producer-Director William A. Wellman retained Billy and Harold Anderson, ace camp and commissary operators, to feed the troop. With the Andersons' gastronomic treats in store three times a day, the troop had plenty of stamina to withstand the rigors of the desert.

REAL FILM FIGHT—Fake a film fight? Not the Dead End girls appearing in Alexander Korda's "Prison Without Bars," coming to the Joy Theatre on Tuesday. For one scene in the picture the girls, all playing inmates of a French reformatory, were required to enact a realistic free for all in the reformatory court. The young actresses were so anxious to give a good performance that they forgot to pull their punches. And when the smoke cleared 17-year-old Sally Wisler discovered she had acquired a beautiful shiner in the screen battle.

CAROL ANN BEERY CHRISTENS VESSEL—Wielding a bottle of Atlantic Ocean water, Carol Ann Beery, adopted daughter of Wallace Beery, christened the Submarine Chaser 591 for her father's newest picture, "Thunder Afloat," opening at the Joy Theatre next Thursday. The chaser is a replica of a famous ship of the United States Navy which took part in the campaign against enemy submarines terrorizing Atlantic coast shipping in May, 1918.

The SC-591 is one of several celebrated ships which play a part in this story of improvised fleet which met the submarine menace. Six of the original chasers were photographed in maneuvers off the Atlantic Coast, and the United States Submarine Sturgeon participated in scenes filmed off the Coronado Islands on the West Coast.
