

Study Club Entertained Thursday—

Members of the Vernonia Study club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Estey October 12th, for a very enjoyable afternoon.

Response to roll call was omitted in order that the members might have the privilege of listening to Mrs. Greenman who gave a very interesting and enlightening talk.

Mrs. Marvin Kamholz was elected to membership in the club during the business session.

A very interesting and well given review of the book, "The Age of the Fish," by Odon Van Harvorth was presented by Mrs. Ray Mills.

Mrs. Olin was critic for the program.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Gordon, with the program by Mrs. E. H. Condit on selected poems.

New Officers Hold First Meeting—

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting in the Legion hall Monday evening with the new officers in their chairs.

The president, Mrs. A. J. Shultz, appointed the following committee chairmen for the ensuing year:

Americanism, Bess Nichols; Child welfare, Blanche King; community service, Lona Weidman and Inez Powell; constitution, Lola Nance; hospital, Ruby Biggs; legislation and education, Rose Valpiani; membership, Isabel Culbertson; national defense, Alice Estey; national news, Del Preston; poppy poster, Julia Boeck; publicity, Isabel Culbertson; radio, Mary Jane Shultz; unit service, Juanita Timmons; junior activity, Bessie Tapp; music, Bess Nichols; unemployment and relief, Blanche King; finance, Anna Luther.

Tentative arrangements were made for the Armistice Day dinner. All ex-service men and their families are invited.

In regards to the Health Unit the Auxiliary goes on record favoring this movement.

All those present enjoyed a letter from a former member, Mrs. Floy Hammack.
