Hardtime Party Held at Church—

A "Hardtime Party" was given at the Christian church last Friday evening, attended by about forty adults, and a children's gathering was held simultaneously in the basement. It was a very enjoyable affair. Mrs. Louise Kilby's Bible class held a Halloween party in the church on Saturday evening, and on Monday evening a large gathering of young people celebrated Halloween, attended by games and appropriate refreshments of cider and doughnuts.

I.O.O.F. Association Meet Due Nov. 7—

A County Association Meeting of I. O. O. F. lodges in Columbia county and the lodge at Westport is scheduled for Vernonia next Tuesday evening, November 7, it was announced this week. Grand Master of the Odd Fellows O. F. Steele and Past Grand Master Zimmerman are expected to be present in addition to delegates and officials from other lodges. Lodges to be represented will be St. Helens, Rainier, Clatskanie and Westport.

Party Honors Birthday—

A party was given at the McKenzie home Saturday night in honor of Christine McKenzie's birthday. Those present were Wilma Adams, Joe Armstrong, John McKenzie, Patricia Pemble, Mr. and Mrs. Al Crist, Don Wolf, Zelma Shipley and the guest of honor, Christine McKenzie. Games and refreshments were enjoyed during the evening.

B. and P. W. Members Meet—

The Business and Professional Women's club held its regular business meeting Tuesday night, October 24, at the Apparel Shop. Plans for the Halloween party were abandoned in favor of a social event to be held later. Members discussed possibilities of continued affiliation with the state and national Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mrs. Lincoln Wins Quilt—

The Pythian Sisters held a card party at the I. O. O. F. hall the night of Wednesday, October 25. Pinochle and bridge were played. In pinochle, Mrs. James Currie and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield held high scores; in bridge, Mrs. Alice Estey. The quilt, which was made by a Portland Pythian Sister, was won by J. C. Lincoln.

The committee in charge of the affair were Mrs. Joe Hursh, Mrs. Milton Lamping and Mrs. Thos. Gronback.

Quilting Club Makes Aprons—

The Westside Quilting club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lewis Laramore on Corey hill. The ladies spent the day making aprons for the Christian church bazaar to be held early in December.

Bon Fire Draws Attention—

A huge bon fire on Corey hill Tuesday evening attracted considerable attention but on investigation proved to be a weiner and marshmallow roast enjoyed by Herman Veal and son, Claude, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sims and sons, Johnnie and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Laramore and children, Phyllis and Arleigh.

Mrs. Gordan Entertains Club—

The members of the Vernonia Study Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Paul Gordon for an enjoyable meeting on Thursday, October 26th. A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess.

Each member responded to roll call by giving a quotation from some famous poem.

Mrs. Marvin Kamholz was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Mrs. E. H. Condit presented a program on selected poems with explanations of each author's life, his other writings and inspiration for that particular poem. Poems read by Mrs. Condit were:

The House by the Side of the Road by Sam Walter Foss; I Have a Rendezvous with Death by Alan Seegar; Trees by Joyce Kilmer; The Raven by Edgar Allan Poe; The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes; Home by Edgar A. Guest.

Critic for the program was Mrs. Robert Rushing.

The next meeting will be on November 9th at the home of Mrs. Robert Rushing on the O-A hill. Mrs. William Heath will review the book, The Kingdom of Swing, by Bennie Goodman.
