Governor Sets Thanksgiving By Proclamation

grateful and humble.

I admonish our people, however, to avoid in their prayers of thanksgiving the vice of Pharisaism. It is easy to indulge in self-pride when we compare ours with other lands and observe the plight of peoples embroiled in war. But we should be chastened in spirit as we reflect that we are of their flesh and subject to the same shortcomings; and as we realize that in spite of progress in science men have not yet learned the art of living peaceably together in great societies.

At a time when the very structure of civilized society reared laboriously through the centuries is threatened with collapse, it is appropriate to seek Divine guidance for the proper ordering of our affairs, and a renewal of that religious faith which offers hope of good will among men. The times, therefore, enjoin a more reverent observance of Thanksgiving Day than has been the recent custom. In witness whereof I have here-

Obituary of Paul Driscoll Made Known

Paul Timothy Driscoll was born in Clarinda, Iowa, September 7, 1901, and departed this life October 27, 1939, after a long illness in the St. Vincents hospital in Portland. Mr. Driscoll was united in marriage to Etta Lucile Simmons in 1924. Since that time they have resided in Vernonia, he being employed during the time by the firm Clark and Wilson and the Oregon American Lumber Corporation.

He leaves behind to mourn his going, his widow and four children, Rosalie, Irene, David and Leonard and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Todd of Iola, Kansas.

Mr. Driscoll was a member of the local Christian church and was at the time of his death and for several years preceding, a deacon in that body.
