YOU CAN HELP TO WIN A WAR!

HOW MANY of you would turn away and refuse to help, if at this moment you came face to face with an opportunity to save one human life? How many of you would shrug your shoulders and sidestep that opportunity, aware that the life you might have saved was ended because of your indifference? How many of you, knowingly, would accept the role of an involuntary killer?

These questions insult your intelligence and your instincts, for none of you would be so inconceivably heartless. No normal person would hesitate to save a fellow being from a death if it was in his power to prevent it, from injury that might bring a lifetime of suffering.

There is death, not brought by violence, which may be cheated as definitely by you as though you were to save a friend from drowning this minute. There is suffering that need not be inflicted on thousands of Americans, most of them young, if you take the most simple action against it. That suffering and death is brought about by tuberculosis.

The germ that causes tuberculosis was discovered within the lifetime of many of us—just 55 years ago. But, in the 39 years since 1900, the toll of lives taken by this disease annually in the United States has been reduced more than 70 per cent. That is what the mobilization of understanding, sympathetic people has accomplished against an enemy whose defeat is assured if the battle continues as it is going.

Your own tuberculosis association here in Vernonia is in the thick of the fight. Behind the lines are clinics and laboratories in which the methods of this warfare constantly are studied in order that they may be made more effective. Behind the clinics are hospitals and sanatoria where 90,000 beds are available to care for the afflicted.

From what source does the ammunition come for obtaining final victory against the enemy that is weakened but still dangerous? It comes from you who do not turn your backs on opportunities to save human life. It comes from you who take action when death is there to mock your heedlessness. It comes from you who, with your pennies and your dollars, buy the little Christmas Seals on which success depends in this fight.

These seals are on sale all over Oregon and will be until Christmas day. They should be available to you in every community, in every town and city. The money you pay for them goes into the battle against tuberculosis in our community and throughout the nation. It is a battle for the protection of your own families against a disease that strikes down most of its victims between the ages of 15 and 45. It is estimated that there are more than 500,000 tubercular persons, that is persons with active tuberculosis, in the United States alone.

The prevention of tuberculosis is as important as its cure. Modern methods in control include an onslaught directed to finding the enemy before it makes itself known by outward signs. At first there is little to warn that the germs have begun to do their damage. Even a physician cannot hear sounds in the chest that might not be normal. The hope of getting well lies in beginning treatment early. Delay is dangerous. No one should neglect going to a doctor or a clinic if he has any of the warning signs, excess fatigue, fever, pain in the chest. The instrument that makes it possible to discover tuberculosis in its very earliest stage is the X-ray. In many colleges and high schools students are X-rayed regularly because it is known that at their age tuberculosis is likely to show its early signs.

The Christmas Seal is the symbol of hope for the afflicted and of safety for all of us whose health is protected by an unceasing campaign for the ultimate eradication of tuberculosis. You would save a life if given the chance? Here is that chance. Pay for some Christmas Seals, as many of them as you can, and use them in proof of your enlistment for the duration of this war. It is a war to save life, not to take it.

MRS. LUTHER TO BE HOSTESS TO HOME DEMONSTRATION TUES.

KEASEY—(Special to The Eagle)—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. DeWitt and son, Donald, spent the weekend in the Wheatland vicinity. They were guests of Mrs. Joie Rogers at the Harvest Homecoming at the Hopewell church.

Warren and Lloyd Gillham are hauling gravel to repair Albert Kreiger's driveway.

The members of the Rock Creek 4-H Forage Club were especially thankful for the clear sunny days during the holidays. The fires burned so well that several and more snags were felled and more ground was cleared for seeding than can generally be done at this time of the year.

Several of the mothers of the Rock Creek 4-H Clubs attended the lecture given by Dr. Allison of the State Board of Health at the Vernonia high school.

The regular Rock Creek 4-H Health Club and Livestock Clubs meeting will be held at the home of Jimmy Luther Tuesday, December 5th, at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Maude Purvine, Home Demonstration Agent will bring slides and the entire evening will be given to posture studies. Each 4-H'er should bring his health record book, note book and pencil.

the cold, gray walls of a reform school for girls, located on the outskirts of Paris, is poignantly and movingly told in Alexander Korda's "Prison Without Bars," which comes Saturday to the Joy Theatre, with Corinne Luchaire, Mr. Korda's newest discovery, playing the heroine of the story.

Miss Luchaire, blond, svelto and beautiful, is a native Parisienne, and was discovered by Mr. Korda when he was visiting the French capital and saw the young actress in a French film. She is only 17 years of age and speaks English perfectly.

CAGNEY FINDS NEW WAYS TO BE TOUGH IN EACH PICTURE

There's a reason why Jimmy Cagney shoves grapefruit in a lady's face.

He'll probably never introduce a grapefruit to a lady that way again, though since the success of that first achievement heaven knows enough script writers have tried to get him to do it.

What was good enough for Jimmy once isn't good enough for him a second time. When he's hardboiled he strives to put over his roughness in a variety of ways. His policy is to keep the audiences guessing; to keep them anticipating what he will do.

JOE E. BROWN PERFORMS 'MACBETH' IN NEW FILM

Virtually every actor has known the unquenchable desire to perform in one of William Shakespeare's tragedies and Joe E. Brown—he of the cavernous mouth—is no exception. Joe gets his chance to play "Macbeth"—well, a portion of it anyway—in Paramount's new foot-ball comedy, "10,000 a Touchdown," opening Tuesday at the Joy Theatre, in which he is co-starred with Martra Raye.

In the film, Joe becomes a football coach in an effort to help Martha put a broken-down college on its feet.

THREE SKILLS NET GIRL STAR HER TOP ROLE

Three attainments combined to win Jane Clayton the romantic lead opposite Tito Guizar in "The Liano Kid," the Paramount adventure drama opening Thursday at the Joy Theatre. The pretty starlet won the assignment—the most important of her career—over a dozen contenders because of her skill as a horsewoman, her cultivated soprano voice and her ability to speak Spanish like a native.

WORLD FAMOUS BABY IN HILARIOUS SCREEN FARCE

Hugh Herbert and baby Sandy share top starring honors as a brand new comedy team in Universal's zesty film "Little Accident" which opens Thursday at the Joy Theatre.

Based on the famous stage hit of the same name, "Little Accident" is described as a whirlwind comedy-drama. The whimsical "woo-woo" man of the screen is lifted from obscurity to fame through the help of Sandy, who is abandoned at the newspaper office where Herbert is employed as baby editor.

Said to be even more adorable and charming than she was as the "baby boy" in her first two pictures, "East Side of Heaven" and "Unexpected Father," Sandy appears on the screen for the first time as a girl.
