Little Dance Club to Begin Series

The Little Dance Club committee met last Thursday night at the home of Lyman Hawken, the chairman. Definite plans were made for the series of three dances to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall every third Saturday for the three coming months. Those dates are: February 17, March 16 and April 20.

Committees for the dances were named as follows:

Floor committee: February 17, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Bateman, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Eby, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wall; March 16, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hearing, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Greenman, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tipton; April 20, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kaphammer, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Roberson.

The committees for decorating and for the hiring of the orchestra will act for the three dances this year: The Lyman Hawkins and the Paul Gordons will have charge of decorations; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartwick and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kamholz will serve on the music committee.

Mrs. Preston Hostess for Luncheon

The first of a series of "diminishing" luncheons was held last Friday with Mrs. Earl Preston as the hostess at her home on the O. A. hill. The luncheons are being given by members of the Deborah Circle of the Evangelical Church Missionary Society.

The plan is as follows: the first luncheon was served to eight members of the particular circle; each one present is to give a similar affair with six guests; those six guests will give a luncheon for four guests; those four will provide a like meeting for two guests. Each guest will pay twenty-five cents for her luncheon. The proceeds will go into the general fund of the church's missionary group.

Mrs. Vaughn Entertains O. A. Bridge Club

Members of the O. A. Bridge Club met Thursday, January 18, at the home of Mrs. Walter Vaughn on the Oregon American hill. High score for the afternoon was held by Mrs. Vaughn. Attending were Mrs. Judd Greenman, Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mrs. Lyman Hawken, Mrs. Charles Marston, Mrs. Connie Anderson, Mrs. Alice Estey, Mrs. F. R. Olin and the hostess, Mrs. Vaughn.

Teachers Entertain Sewing Group

Miss Grace Condit, Miss Marian Schrieber and Mrs. Ina Scott were hostesses to a group Tuesday night of last week, January 16, at the F. E. Malmsten home. Sewing was the main activity of the enjoyable evening which was terminated after delicious refreshments of tea and sandwiches were served. Attending were Ruby Maddess, Jane Lovett, Pauline Christen, Shirley Wiegand, Mildred Weed, Mary Fossatti, Mrs. F. E. Malmsten, Mrs. M. H. Kamholz, and the hostesses.

Masonic Homecoming Successful Affair

The Masonic Homecoming and banquet, an annual event of the local Masonic Lodge, was for the eighth year a well attended and highly successful affair. 133 men gathered for the evening of good fellowship and reunion. Because of the flu epidemic, there were not so many visitors or members present as had been anticipated.

45 different lodges, 17 Grand jurisdictions and two foreign lodges were represented at the meeting. Many former residents of Vernonia were also present.

Among the outstanding guests were R. Frank Peters, Circuit Judge of Washington and Tillamook counties, Past Worthy Grand Master who has not missed one of the eight homecomings; D. D. G. M. Rosebaugh of Rainier, District 24; D. D. G. M. Barlow of Warrenton, District 13.

A delegation from Longview invited the local lodge to attend a meeting in their city in February; Mr. Rosebaugh invited members to the District meeting to be held in Rainier February 8th.

Entertainment for the members and guests of the Vernonia A. F. and A. M. was provided by Richard Lalli, talented young accordionist from Pittsburg.

Eastern Star Initiates New Member Wednesday

On Wednesday evening, January 17, newly installed officers of Nehalem Chapter of the Eastern Star exemplified the degrees, initiating one new candidate, Nedra Young. There were a large number in attendance. Mrs. Herman Dickson came from Portland to fill her station; Mrs. Maybelle Cochran of Oregon City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Drorbaugh, was a visitor.

Refreshments were served in the social hall by a committee consisting of Mrs. Louise George, Mrs. Minnie Hughes, Mrs. Verla Porterfield and Mrs. Eurma Hartwick.

500 Club Entertained by Mrs. Koberstein

The 500 Club met last Thursday, January 18, at the home of Mrs. Westlund Koberstein. Mrs. Robert Woods won first prize for high score; Mrs. Ernest Gwin won low. The next meeting of the group is scheduled for February 1 at the home of Mrs. John Kirk.

Rainbow Girls Install Officers

Monday night, January 22, at the Masonic Temple, the Rainbow Girls installed officers elected to serve for four months. Erma Kent acted as drill leader. Jean Vaughn, outgoing Worthy Advisor, was succeeded by Myrtle Stacey.

Other elected officers installed were: Worthy Associate Advisor, Heidi Reich; Charity, Elsie Duncan; Hope, Joanne Nichols; Faith, Pauline Rollins; Secretary, Lillian Laird; Treasurer, Jonnibel Hatfield.

The newly appointed advisory board consists of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins, Mrs. Ray Mills, Emil Messing and W. F. MacDon-
