Mrs. Olin Entertains with Luncheon—

Mrs. F. R. Olin entertained at luncheon at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon the following ladies: Mrs. Walter Thompson, Mrs. Lee Caulfield, Mrs. E. E. Preston, Mrs. J. W. Nichols, Mrs. Ernest East, Mrs. Lyman Hawkins and Mrs. Charles Marston. The luncheon was one of the series sponsored by the Deborah Circle.

Little Dance Club Engages Whetmore—

For the first of a series of three dances, the Little Dance Club has engaged Jimmie Whetmore and his orchestra. This dance will be held Saturday, February 17, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Vernonia Volunteer Firemen Feted—

The Vernonia Volunteer Firemen held their annual banquet Monday evening at the Harry Culbertson home. Attending were Earl Smith, Clifford Smith, Floyd Smith, George McKay, Jim Foster, Frank DeBate, Emil Messing, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCrary, a guest, J. W. Nichols and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson. Following the banquet, prepared and served by Mrs. Culbertson and Mrs. McCrary, the evening was spent in reminiscing; interesting occurrences in the history of the Vernonia Fire Department were recalled and discussed.

Darlene Aspinall Given Birthday Party—

Mrs. Ted Aspinall honored her six year old daughter, Darlene, with a birthday party last Saturday afternoon at the Aspinall home on the O. A. hill. Ice cream and cake were served; the favors were gum drop trees. Children attending were: Bobby Dean Fulton, Denny Graves, Beverly Cline, Wayne Holcomb, Pete Norris, Helen Thompson and Peggy Ann Ortnor.

Evangelical Missionary Society Meets Feb. 7—

The Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church will meet in the church parlors next Wednesday, February 7, for its regular monthly meeting.

During the study hour the work of the Red Bird Missions in Kentucky will be reviewed. The program also includes a playlet.

Ladies are requested to bring a generous offering of Lincoln pennies. The Y. P. M. C. members have made posters representing the Kentucky mountains and all roads and paths are to be covered with pennies. Five dollars worth of pennies is required for the goal of 31 1/2 feet of pennies.

During the social hour guests will visit a typical Kentucky Mountain home, and be entertained by members of the Martha Circle in typical mountaineer fashion. Interesting decorations and exhibits will be arranged, and refreshments suitable to the occasion will be served.

All members and friends of the society are urged to be present promptly at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Olin Gives Musical Program—

The Vernonia Study Club met Thursday, January 25, at the home of Mrs. F. R. Olin for a very enjoyable afternoon. Following a dessert luncheon served by the hostess, roll call was answered by giving a new word, its meaning and its use in an original sentence.

A short business meeting was held at which time it was decided to sponsor for another year the Tawanka tribe, Miss Grace Condit's campfire group.

Mrs. Olin presented a program of musical recordings and pointed out many interesting facts in the life of each of the artists represented. The following selections were played: "Finlandia" by Sibelius; "Praeludium" by Jaerne'elt, both Finnish composers; "Minuet" by Paderewski as played by himself; "The Maids of Cadiz" by Delibes and "The Wren" by Julius Benedict sung by Lily Pons; "The Nutcracker Suite" and "The Third Movement of the Fourth Symphony" by Tschaiakowski played by the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra; "Tales from the Vienna Woods" by Johann Strauss; Overture to "The Barber of Seville" by Rossini.

The next meeting of the Study Club will be held February 8 at the Wallace McCrae home; Mrs. E. M. Bollinger will review the book "The Brandons" by Angela Thirlwell.

Legion and Auxiliary Hold District Meet—

At the District meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary held in Rainier, Sunday afternoon and evening, January 28, the following Vernonia members attended: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lincoln, Mrs. Alice Estey, Mrs. Earl Preston, Mrs. Ruby

Biggs and Mrs. A. J. Schultz.

Reports from the different posts in the district proved the Legion and Auxiliary to be farther advanced in membership at this time of the year than in the history of the organization. The groups take a firm stand on Americanization, Immigration and National Defense, particularly Pacific Coast defense.

The Vernonia Legion and Auxiliary received several citations of honor for community service.

Mrs. Watts Entertains for Daughter, Jane—

Mrs. C. R. Watts entertained at a six o'clock dinner Monday evening for her daughter, Jane, and Alvin Lachine in honor of their birthdays. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Watts and Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lachine and son, Alvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Pemble and family.

Committee Meets with Mrs. Glen Hawkins—

The Ways and Means committee of the Social Club of the Eastern Star met at the home of Mrs. Glen Hawkins Tuesday afternoon; Mrs. Roland Treharne presiding. A card party to be held February 22, a dance in March and a play to be given next fall were the benefit affairs planned for the year. Attending the committee meeting were: Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mrs. Marvin Porterfield, Mrs. Roland Treharne and Mrs. Glen Hawkins.

Pythian Sisters Meet at Culbertson's—

The Pythian Sisters met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson last Wednesday, January 24, Mrs. Oliver Mellinger, most Excellent Chief presiding. Tentative plans were made for a membership drive as were plans for the District Convention to be held here in Vernonia April 24.

Following the business meeting a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. The next meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall, February 14.

Jane Watts and Alvin Lachine Honored—

After band practice Monday evening Lyman Hawken, Jr. entertained at the Hawken home for Jane Watts and Alvin Lachine. Those present were Lyman Hawken, Jane Watts, Alvin Lachine, Mary Lee Hall, Florida Graves, Weston Pemble and Patricia Pemble. Jack Heenan was unable to attend.

News of the Theatre

GEORGE RAFT IN "INVISIBLE STRIPES" COMING TO JOY—

Starring George Raft, Jane Bryan, and William Holden, "Invisible Stripes" will open at the Joy Theatre on Sunday.

The story is of a man just released from Sing Sing who is determined to lead an honest life, but the obstacles he encounters as a parolee make it next to impossible.

George Raft, who reneged on his announcement that he would never play a gangster again, plays the title role, but explained his action by saying, "the unusual aspects of such a role convinced me that this was not just another gangster part but one in which there is justification."

It was as a dancer that Raft found fame. When the Charleston gave him the reputation as "the kid with the fastest feet in New York," he was off on his career, which soon brought him to the attention of Hollywood. A few minor roles and the part as the killer in "Scarface."

Since that role George Raft has been one of Hollywood's top "menaces."

FAMILY WASTES RICHES IN "THREE SONS"—

A revelation of the tendency of children of the rich to waste their inheritance on riotous living, "Three Sons" affords Edward Ellis of "A Man to Remember" fame, a strong new screen role.

The gripping story presents the distinguished stage and film actor as a long-sighted businessman who takes his wife to Chicago directly after the metropolis has been gutted by the great holocaust of 1871. Imbued with the courage of his convictions, he is determined to establish on the city's ashes a huge mercantile dynasty for his future children.

The story traces vividly the growth of the enterprise into a powerful business. Counterpointing this is the growth of the children of the ambitious merchant who makes millions for his three sons and a daughter, only to spoil them with too much luxury. How the daughter sells her birthright for a brief fling at excitement, and the sons use the fruits of their father's toil to grease the skids down which they slide, and how one of the boys ultimately redeems himself, are said to provide a stirring entertainment.

"THE ARIZONA KID"—

With Roy Rogers, "Gabby" Hayes, Sally March, and Stuart Hamblen.

Republic's sensational cowboy, who leaped to fame in "Under Western Stars," has stayed right on top in every picture in which he has appeared. Reports the country over prove that Roy is definite boxoffice—and growing all the time. And "Gabby" Hayes joins Roy again to add "draw" to this first of the Rogers' 1939-40 westerns. The background is just before the outbreak of the Civil War, and the action is smash!

NEW "BROTHER RAT" COMEDY OPENING THURSDAY AT JOY—

"Brother Rat and a Baby," Warner Bros. new sequel to the comedy hit "Brother Rat," will have its first local showing at the Joy Theatre Thursday. Heading the cast are Priscilla Lane, Wayne Morris, Eddie Albert, Jane Bryan, Jane Wyman, Ronald Reagan and Peter B. Good, the infant actor who plays the second half of the title.

Based on a story by John Monks, Jr. and Fred F. Finklehoff, who originated the "Brother Rat" comedy for the stage and later for the screen, the new film continues the adventures of trio of V. M. I. cadets after graduation. Eddie Albert, the Brother Rat who became a father on Commencement Day, is the proud screen papa of little Peter B. Good and Jane Bryan is the mother. Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane pick up the tangled threads of their romance where they left off in "Brother Rat" and Ronald Reagan and Jane Wyman are another twosome, bucking parental disapproval.
