

4-H CLUB MEET ANNOUNCED; BABY BORN TO LINDSLEYS

KEASEY—(Special to The Eagle)—The 4-H Club met at the Pleasant Vale school February 6. There were only 12 members present. Several children in the Health Club have had their teeth cared for and they are all doing what they can to improve their health. Games were played and every one present received a Valentine from Donald DeWitt.

Mrs. Clarence Reed and two sons, Ivan and Bobbie, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Battrick in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Herb Counts visited Mrs. Chet Fugate at the O. A. camp Sunday.

Claribel Lindsley, who is attending the NYA school in Portland, was home over the weekend. She likes her school very much.

Little Billy Kreiger has the chicken pox and is quite sick.

The Columbia County 4-H Club Leaders Association meeting will be held Saturday, February 17, at the Deer Island school house between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 12 o'clock. Mr. H. G. Seymour, State Club Leader, will be present. Club leaders, teachers and parents are invited.

A six and three-quarter pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lindsley February 7. She has been named Cherrie Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Morris, Mrs. Ted Keasey and daughters, Barbara and Katherine, and Mrs. Anna

Luther and Jimmie and Eugene Cleveland drove to Portland Saturday.

Priscilla White is sick with tonsillitis.

J. A. Armstrong and son, Irvan, drove to Portland Saturday.

The Keasey Extension Club met at Georgia Mellinger's February 7. The care of clothing was demonstrated by Georgia Mellinger and Grace Pierce. Those attending were Eola DeVaney, Viola Comstock, Hilda Keasey, Eda Parker, Marie Christenson, Anna Luther, Iva Gillham, Carol Carlson, Vivian Counts, Blanche DeWitt, Helen Smith, Mildred Brady, Alice Gwin, Mae Mellinger, Mrs. E. L. Deeberry, Grace Pierce, Georgia Mellinger, Jean DeVaney, Isola Morris and Clara Lindsley. A pot luck dinner was served.

EVEN WARDROBE WORE MAKE-UP—

Add a button and make an eight-inch slit in the back of the coat, narrow the trousers, and the man of 1939 is transformed into the man of 1885. Such was the discovery of wardrobe experts while filming "Bad Little Angel," a story of childhood with Virginia Weidler and Gene Reynolds, coming Saturday to the Joy Theatre. Tailors were engaged by Metro-Goldwyn Mayer to fashion suits for Ian Hunter, Guy Kibbee and others for the picture laid in the Eighties. Comparison with designs of older days proved Kibbee's contention that a few slight alterations and raising of lapels would do the trick. Stock ties, "Jemina" boots and tall crowned hats finished out early sartorial splendor achieved through the "ageing" of modern ready-made suits.

DRAMA NEVER GREATER THAN IN "STANLEY" HIT—

"Dr. Livingstone, I presume?" Drama knows no more thrilling moment than when Stanley speaks these words to Dr. Livingstone in the heart of Africa, the climax of the adventure that thrilled the world. And now the most heroic exploit known to man may be seen in one of the most spectacular motion pictures ever undertaken, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone."

Featuring one of the finest acting casts ever assembled, the opening of the 20th Century-Fox film on Sunday will be a gala day at the Joy Theatre. Spencer Tracy, twice winner of the Academy Award, portrays the daring Stanley, crack newspaper man of the New York Herald. Starred with him are Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene, heading an imposing cast including Walter Brennan, also an Academy Award winner; Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, as Livingstone; Henry Hull and Henry Travers.

ROYAL CHILDREN VOTE GENE AUTRY THEIR TOP STAR—

Gene Autry holds the unique distinction of being the favorite movie star of England's little princesses, Elizabeth and Margaret Rose, daughters of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. Each time Autry makes a new picture, the little girls are the first in England to see it. A standing order has been placed with the British Lion Film Company, which distributes Republic pictures in England, for a print of each picture to be sent direct to the Royal Palace for a special screening.

Autry, whose latest picture, "Colorado Sunset," is coming to the Joy Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday is the proud possessor of several fan letters from the two little princesses. It is very probable that Autry will meet his two little admirers when he goes to England for a personal appearance tour this fall.

ENGINEER DROPS DEAD; P. T. A. BASKET SOCIAL SUCCESSFUL EVENT

TIMBER—(Special to The Eagle)—Daniel Reid of Oakridge, working here as engineer on the extra board, dropped dead in the hotel lobby Sunday night, while visiting with his fellow workers. Mr. Reid leaves his wife, Edith, at Oakridge, one son, Leo, at Willamina, three brothers and four sisters. His death came as quite a shock to those who knew him.

The P. T. A. sponsored a basket social in the gym Saturday night. Thirty-seven dollars was taken in. A prize was given for the one whose basket brought the most and a beautiful lamp made and donated by John Bino was the gift, going to Miss Taza Register, her basket selling for $3.50. Miss Johnson's basket was a close-up bringing $3.00. DeLois Kay won in the popularity contest with Jane Hensley a close runner-up.

Mrs. Laura Gilmore and two grand-daughters, Claudette and Shirley Mae, were visitors in Portland Saturday.

A 7-pound, 13-ounce baby daughter was born at the Emanuel Hospital in Portland last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klein. This is the Klein's second daughter.
