IWA to Play Last Game Sun.

Westport Five Will Offer Competition to Vernonia Team

The IWA basketball quintet plays its last game of the season on the coming Sunday, March 10, according to Denny Ryves, manager, against the powerful Westport group. The game is set to open at 2:30 p. m. Westport is rated as one of the best independent teams in this part of the country.

Westport's record this year includes a sizeable list of wins: the Eastern Outfitters of Astoria, St. Helens Buckaroos, and the Portland city champions, the Multnomah intermediates.

Two games were played with Westport last year, each team winning on its own floor.

Rainier to Be Host to Teams Competing for Championship

On Friday the Washington grade school basketball quintet travels to Rainier to play for the county championship. Chances for winning are very slim according to Coach Gordon. Lost to this champion squad were four men: Ira Lee, center; Almond Thomas, guard; Robert Hall, forward (these three having moved away this week) and Berl Arner, star forward and man around which the "fast break" was built. Arner suffered an accident seriously injuring his hand and removing him from play for the remainder of the season.

The boys making the trip are: Lyle Galloway, Charles McDonald, Junior Owens, Lewis Lane, Weston Pemble, Jackie Nance, Larry Brady, Max Ensworth, Clyde Lamping, Dan Collins, Duke Byers, Dickie Colsen, Bobbie Ollinger and Robert Schwab.
