

LET'S BE SOCAIBLE

Missionary Society Meets Wednesday—

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church held its March meeting at the church Wednesday of last week.

Devotionals on the topic of stewardship were led by Mrs. O. G. Weed. The book review on "Great Britain and Europe" was presented by Mrs. L. H. Dewey. Mrs. Judd Greenman conducted a round table talk during which the ladies told their European ancestry, and then thoughts were turned to our heritage from countries across the sea.

During the business session plans were completed for the Father and Son banquet to be held March 28. Plans were also made for the district rally to be held here on April 5. The sessions will begin at 9:40 and continue through the day. Luncheon will be served at noon. Miss Verna Hertzler, a missionary from Japan, will be guest speaker. Because of the rally, the annual birthday luncheon will be postponed until later in the month. The date will be announced later.

During the social hour members of the Deborah circle served English tea with cinnamon and buttered toast, jam and Devonshire cream.

Group Has Progressive Dinner Thursday—

A progressive dinner was held Thursday night of last week by the group of women teachers who are "batching". Hors d'oeuvres were served by Jane Wilkinson, Doris O'Connor, Jane Lovett and Ruby Maddess at their apartments at the Cherry Tree. At the Hoffman apartments, Justine Prescott and Freda Beck served the salads. Thelma and Velva Ramsey, Rose di Maeon and Barbara Sneath, living at the Austin apartments, provided the main course at a table set for 12, beautifully laid with pottery dishes and covers depicting scenes from south of the border.

Dessert and coffee were served by Shirley Weigal and Pauline Christen at the Reeber apartment. The Easter motif with bunnies as place cards and nests of candy eggs as table decorations was cleverly carried out.

Lindbergh-Savage Rites Read in Forest Grove—

Joann Lindbergh became the bride of M. L. Savage, on the afternoon of March 3 at a quiet ceremony read in the parsonage of Reverend J. H. Williams, pastor of the Forest Grove Assembly of God church. Attending the wedding from Vernonia were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christensen and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. DeHart and children and Miss Betty Rattke.

The young couple will make their home in Vernonia.

Vernonia Business Women Meet—

The Vernonia Business Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Steele Tuesday night, March 12. Two candidates, Vera Sehorn and Mary Fossatti were initiated in a candlelight ceremony. The program consisted of reports on pioneer Vernonia given by Marian Schrieber and Ina Scott. Discussion of a suitable climax of the year's study-project followed with the conclusion that a guest speaker, interested and well-informed on early Nehalem Valley days; should be invited to address the club and its guests.

Mrs. Steele served delicious cake, coffee and tea at the close of the meeting.

Camp Fire Girls to Install Officers—

The Cawpewa Camp Fire Girls' candy sale, held recently was successful, the proceeds totaling $5.40. The group plans a short stay at Washington park on Saturday, March 16, then the spring window displays down town thence to the auditorium for the Grand Council of Camp Fire Girls.

The next meeting will be at the cabin when the new officers will be installed.

Little Dance Slated Saturday—

At the I. O. O. F. hall, Saturday night, March 16, the Vernonia Little Dance Club will hold the second of its spring formal dances. Hal Cook's band of St. Helens has been engaged for the evening. The floor committee in charge of the St. Patrick's dance is: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hearing, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Greenman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tipton. Guest tickets may be obtained from members of the organization.

Loyal Women's Class Plans Bazaar—

At a meeting held last Wednesday of the Loyal Women's Class of the Christian church plans for a bazaar were made. The bazaar will be held in commemoration of Mother's Day. The date set for the affair was April 27.

O. A. Bridge Club Meets Thursday—

The O. A. Bridge club met with Mrs. Alice Estey last Thursday. Mrs. Lee Caulfield and Mrs. J. W. Nichols were guests of the club. High score was held by Mrs. Anderson. Mrs. A. J. Hughes entertains the club at her home March 21.

Queen of Hearts Meets at Heaths—

Mrs. William Heath met with the Queen of Hearts bridge club last Thursday at her Riverview home. Mrs. R. D. Eby held high score. Mrs. William Briot, second high. Mrs. Loel Roberts was a guest for the afternoon.

Dance Sponsored by Social Club—

The annual spring frolic, sponsored by the Nehalem Social Club of the Eastern Star is to be given March 29 at the Masonic Temple. Masons and Eastern Stars and invited guests will attend the affair. Prizes and refreshments will be a feature of the dancing party.

News of the Theatre

"PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES"—The cockeyed world will laugh its head off at "Pack Up Your Troubles," the gay 20th Century-Fox comedy which brings Jane Withers to the Joy Theatre on Saturday, with three new friends — those roisterous Ritzes!

Jane promises to delight you and thrill you too as the bravest little Ma'amelle in all France. And, as for the Ritzes, they're bringing a whole kit bag and kiboodle full of new Ritz-tricks, because they're in the army now—and being the Ritzes of course, they tell the General how to run it!

"DRUMS ALONG THE MOHAWK"—Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Drums Along the Mohawk" promises to be the highspot of the coming film season in Vernonia. Filmed in the latest Technicolor, with Claudette Colbert and Henry Fonda in the starring roles, this 20th Century-Fox picture brings unsurpassed action, vividly directed by John Ford, to the screen of the Joy Theatre when it opens Sunday. The story is based on the great best-selling novel by Walter D. Edmonds of the stirring days of adventure and romance when America was young. The action is set in New York's peaceful, beautiful Mohawk Valley and depicts the colonists under the onslaught of the savage Iroquois. Battle scenes in this film reach a pitch of realism and excitement never equalled on the screen.

"THE EARL OF CHICAGO"—When a Chicago gangster becomes an English Earl by inheritance, it develops into one of the most unusual motion picture situations ever filmed, and with Robert Montgomery departing from his customary genial playboy roles to give a startlingly realistic performance as the gangster, "The Earl of Chicago," which opens at the Joy Theatre Tuesday.

The film starts out as a straight gangster picture, with some revealing "insides" in modern liquor rackets. Its most colorful moments come when Silky, whose greed takes him to England to collect his inheritance, becomes a member of the House of Lords. Later, after murdering his lawyer and pal, he is tried by his peers and convicted. This is a murder trial such as Hollywood never has pictured before and is among many of the surprising and original twists the story takes.

"THE MAN FROM DAKOTA"

For once a new angle is discovered to the Civil War in "The Man from Dakota," which opens at the Joy Theatre Thursday without the customary North vs. South and family-divided-against-itself theme. Instead, the leading characters are two Yankee prisoners of war who escape the Confederate prison camp at Belle Island, and a Russian girl who joins them as a fugitive after she has killed a Confederate officer who mistreated her. And the result is one of the fastest-moving, most hair-raising melodramas of the past year.

Wallace Beery is the escaped Yankee sergeant who wants only to keep his stomach filled and head west; John Howard is his young and idealistic superior officer bent on regaining the Union lines, and Dolores Del Rio makes an impressive return to the screen as the Russian girl, Jenny.

GARLOCKS HAVE BABY; AMATEUR HOUR POSTPONED; K. WILSON ILL

MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—C. Wardell was ill the first of the week and off duty.

Mrs. L. Wikstrom and Mrs. A. A. Dowling were Clatskanie visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Bjorie are spending a time in Sequim, Washington visiting her mother and to see her brother, Eugene Rasmussen, who is at home from the navy on a furlow.

Mrs. Otto Bittner was a visitor in Clatskanie Saturday.

The Fred Parkenen folks were visiting in Mist during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Dunlap went to Clatskanie Wednesday on business; calling on the Austin Dowlings on their way.

Mrs. Maud Rodgers is enjoying a visit from her sister who lives in Portland.

Shady Lane is spending a few days with his sister at Seaside. The Amateur Evening that was to be given by the school Friday evening was postponed on account of too many cases of the flu but some of the active young people had a party in the gym anyway. All report a good time.

The stork flew over the Garlock home recently and left a 9-pound baby boy for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garlock.

Melvin Saxon was in from Clatskanie over the weekend.

Louis Wikstrom and son are getting out shingle bolts.

Kenneth Wilson has been on the sick list for the past two weeks.

Miss Eunice Larson was a Portland visitor on Saturday.

Monday dinner guests of Mrs. Austin Dowling were: Mrs. Sam Trotter and daughter, Dory, and Mrs. Newton Trotter, all from Elsie. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Knowles and Dewey Warner and daughter motored to Elsie Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bridgers and Miss Elaine Louden were Portland visitors Tuesday.

We are glad to hear the young son of Austin Corll is improving.
