Mrs. Alverne Hold was honored with a stork shower at the home of Mrs. Anna Wood last Thursday afternoon. Attending were Mrs. Elva Davis, Mrs. Hazel Woolsey, Mrs. Elmo Brewer, Mrs. Margaret Brederick, Mrs. Hannah Wilson, Mrs. Betty Crouse, Mrs. Laura Bennett, Mrs. Emma Clark, Mrs. Alvina Sturdevant, Mrs. Ruth Brownke, Miss Margaret Sturdevant, the honored guest and the hostess. Sending gifts but unable to attend the affair were: Mrs. R. I. Hall, Mrs. Virginia Hall, Mrs. Maud Orndull, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and Mrs. Tom Henderson.

F. O. E. Members Enjoy Pot-luck Feed—

A number of members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and their wives enjoyed a social evening with a pot-luck lunch and moving pictures last Friday evening at the Legion hall. The evening's lunch was provided by the losing team led by Albert Pierce, of a recent membership drive, to the members of the winning team, led by Art Kirk.

The evening began with a short business meeting of the members of the order to be followed by the showing of several reels of moving pictures taken by local people. Mrs. Myrtle Layer staged the movies by showing a number of scenes she had taken and a number taken by Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Knight. About 50 people were present for the affair.

Mrs. Mills Hostess to Study Club—

Mrs. Ray Mills was hostess to the Vernonia Study Club at her home March 14. A delightful dessert luncheon carrying out the St. Patrick theme was served. Members responded to roll call by giving a line from a modern play.

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Wallace McCrae reviewed the play "I Have Been Here Before" by J. B. Priestly. The plot of the drama centers about a young school master, Oliver Ferrant; a wealthy industrialist, Walter Ormund; and his young wife, Janet. A German philosopher, Dr. Gortler, who believes our lives are lived in cycles which are often repeated, has seen, through an experiment, what has happened to the lives of the other three in a former existence and comes to take a hand in the affair.

Mrs. F. R. Olin's sister, Mrs. Willey of Portland was a guest of the club.

The play, "Susan and God", will be reviewed at the next meeting March 28 by Mrs. Harry Sandon who will also act as hostess.

Nehalem Club Meets At Olin's—

The Nehalem Club, social club of the Eastern Star, met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. F. R. Olin with Mrs. E. J. Preston assisting the hostess. Mrs. Ray Mills presided over the group of sixteen members.

Tickets for the dance the Stars are sponsoring March 29 were distributed. The affair will be held in the Masonic Temple.

The next meeting of the Club will be April 10 at which time Mrs. Leona McGraw of Forest Grove will entertain at 1:00 o'clock luncheon.

O. E. S. Attends Forest Grove Meet—

Last Monday evening the entire corps of officers and several other members of the local Eastern Star lodge went to Forest Grove to a special "Friendship Night" planned by the Forest Chapter.

The local officers presented their opening march preceding the short business meeting after which the Forest Chapter gave a very impressive degree honoring Mrs. Sara Drorbaugh, Worthy Matron of the local O. E. S. A small bouquet of daffodils was given each one present and each officer of the host chapter presented her special guest, the one serving in the same office in the Nehalem Chapter, with a gift.

After the close of the meeting, following an interesting talk about and an exhibition of articles from China given by Miss Graham of Forest Grove, a grand march was formed, leading the members to the social hall where refreshments and group singing were enjoyed.

Mrs. E. H. McGraw of Forest Grove and Mrs. F. D. Macpherson of Portland, former Vernonia residents, were present at the meeting.

Auxiliary Entertains Officials Monday—

Mrs. Lydia Horsefall, Department President of the American Legion Auxiliary, will pay her official visit to the local unit of that organization March 25, Monday. Accompanying Mrs. Horsefall are Mrs. Goode, vice-president, Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, secretary, and Mrs. DeLores Heimling, district president.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols will serve a 1:00 o'clock luncheon at her home, 141 B Street, on that afternoon; each member is urged to come and further is asked to inform Mrs. Nichols at the latest on the morning of March 24 whether or not she will be present at the luncheon.

The committee assisting the hostess, Mrs. Nichols, is: Mrs. Anna Luther, Mrs. Alice Estey, Mrs. Dell Freston.

Scheuermans Entertain Grandmothers—

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Scheuerman were host and hostess to eight of the older grandmothers of the community last Sunday at their home. The event, an annual affair this being the fourth year, brought as guests Mrs. Ollie Roberts, Mrs. Emma Weed, Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Mrs. J. M. John, Mrs. Dora Washburn, Mrs. Alice Crawford, Mrs. Laura Sauer and Mrs. Julia E. Brown.

A trio consisting of Erma Kent, Opal Scheuerman and Maxine John sang accompanied by Martha Tapp. Mrs. L. H. Dewey sang "Little Old Lady," and was accompanied by Opal Scheuerman.

Rebekahs Initiate Three—

On March 14th Mt. Heart Rebekah lodge held their regular meeting with a large number present, including fifteen visitors from the Forest Grove lodge.

Three candidates were initiated and after closing, several Odd Fellows came in and the sisters repeated the drill for their benefit after which refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream, cookies and coffee were served on tables decorated in St. Patrick day colors.
