

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Women's Relief Corps Meets Thursday—

John Bucher Women's Relief Corps of Vernonia met March 21, Thursday. Tables were decorated with daffodils and Easter eggs. Places were set for 26 for the pot-luck lunch served at noon.

After lunch our drill captain and her drill team put on their drill after which the corps held their regular session with Elizabeth Watts presiding.

Clara Adder and Anna Smith of Forest Grove brought in the traveling flag and a diary in which all records of this flag are kept. This flag will be on display at various places in Vernonia until the district convention which will be held in Tillamook, April 18. About 24 members of this corps are making plans to attend this convention.

The drill team will put on a drill under the leadership of the captain, Estella Monger.

Faye Davis was admitted by initiation into the corps.

The next meeting will be April 16 as district convention meets on our regular meeting day. All members are asked to attend.

B and P W Meets with Mrs. Hatfield—

The Vernonia Business Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. John Hatfield Tuesday night for the regular meeting of the group. Following a short business meeting, refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed.

Five Take I. O. O. F. Degree Work—

Twenty-four members and candidates for admission to the I. O. O. F. were in Portland last Friday evening for the staging of the work of the first degree of admission. The degree work was staged in Haslo Lodge of Portland. The trip to Portland was made by bus.

The second degree of the work was staged by the Vernonia lodge Tuesday evening here.

Candidates taking the work are Lennie Skuzis, Carl Anderson, Wesley Pace, Loren Atkins and Marvin Kamholz.

Mrs. Nichols Entertains Circle—

The Martha Circle met in the home of Mrs. J. W. Nichols on B St. Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Nichols gave a fine talk on "Charity," stressing the Christian love side of the meaning of charity. Mrs. Everaul, chairman, had charge of the short business session.

Mrs. Briot Hostess of Bridge Club—

The Queen of Hearts Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. William Briot last Thursday afternoon for dessert luncheon and cards. Mrs. Lowell Heiber held high score; Mrs. Ben Brickel, second high.

Mrs. George Plumb played with the group that day and invited the club to her home in Portland for the next meeting in two weeks.

E. S. Features Birthday Party—

The special feature of the meeting of Nehalem Chapter, O. E. S. on March 20 was a birthday party for all members whose birthday came during the first three months of the year. There were about 12 such honored guests.

A program consisting of games for which prizes were given, a clack face skit by Mrs. A. J. Hughes and Miss Ivy Masters, a movie act by Mrs. Hamp Roberson and Mrs. Paul Gordon and a burlesque by Mrs. E. M. Bollinger and Miss Olive Masters, had been arranged by the committee.

The tables were beautifully decorated with Easter favors; the luncheon carried out the same idea.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKnight of Forest Grove and Mrs. William Cochran of Oregon City.

O. A. Club Meets with Mrs. Hughes—

Mrs. A. J. Hughes was hostess to the O. A. Bridge Club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Judd Greenman held high score. Mrs. Lee Caulfield, who was a guest on the afternoon, will become a member, replacing Mrs. Hughes whose resignation was accepted at that time.

Rainbow Girls Have Dinner for Visitors Monday—

The Rainbow Girls held a dinner for members of the assemblies from St. Helens and Corvallis Monday night, March 25, at the Masonic Temple. A committee of Eastern Star members planned and served the meal. Afterward a courtesy initiation was held.

Marianna Furnish and Erma Kobenstein were initiated into the order at the March 11 meeting.

Friendship Circle Holds Meeting—

The Friendship circle met last Thursday at the Phillip Millis home. Pot luck luncheon was served at one o'clock and a social afternoon was enjoyed. Members present were Mrs. Bert Bassett, Mrs. Sidney Malmsten, Mrs. Alice Crawford, Mrs. Harvey Crume, Mrs. Louis Joeck, Mrs. Will Chalmers, Mrs. Everett Wood, Mrs. Harry Myers and the hostess, Mrs. Millis.

Missionary Group to Meet Wednesday—

On next Wednesday, April 3rd, at 2 p. m. the Evangelical W. M. S. will hold its regular meeting at the church.

Devotions on the topic "Follow Thou Me into the Busy Mart" will be led by Mrs. Bessie Malmsten.

Mrs. Ray Mills will review the first chapters of the new study book, "Right Here at Home". Special attention is drawn to the Italian missions in our large cities. With this theme in mind, the meeting will adjourn to the social hall promptly at 4:00 p. m. and the Pollyanna Circle will serve Italian refreshments. As a special feature, Richard Lalli will sing Italian songs, and play his accordion during the refreshment hour.

On Friday, April 5, the local W. M. S. will be hostesses to the district rally. Sessions will begin at 9:40 and continue through out the day. A fifteen cent luncheon will be served at noon. Guest speakers will be Miss Verna Hertzler, Missionary from Japan; and Mrs. Rodney Sunburg of Seattle, branch president of the organization. Mr. and Mrs. Sunburg sail for China in August.

The date for the annual birthday luncheon will be announced at the W. M. S. meeting.

Pollyanna Circle Meets Thursday—

The Pollyanna Circle of the Evangelical Missionary Society met at the church Thursday, March 21. Miss Zonweiss Douglass led the devotions and also gave an interesting description of the Passion Play which she saw in Portland.

Twelve members and two visitors enjoyed the pot-luck lunch served at noon. Quilting was the activity of the afternoon.

News of the Theatre

BILLY HALOP IS NATURAL ACTOR—

Although Billy Halop, leader of the Dead End Kids, has never taken a dramatic lesson in his life, he is credited with being one of the most able juvenile stars in Hollywood.

Trained through practical experience in stage roles, Halop adds strong excitement to the Universal comedy-drama, "Call a Messenger," which comes Saturday at the Joy Theatre with Huntz Hall, the Little Tough Guys, Robert Armstrong, Mary Carlisle and Anne Nagel. Said to contain comedy, action and suspense, the picture presents the boys as a group of hard-working young messengers.

CONNIE MOORE IN GAY COMEDY—

Constance Moore, whose beauty, talent and captivating singing voice have made her one of the most popular young actresses in Hollywood, has the romantic lead with Johnny Downs in Universal's gay musical farce, "Laugh It Off," which comes Saturday to the Joy Theatre.

Favorites in the supporting cast include Marjorie Rambeau, Cecil Cunningham, Hedda Hopper, Janet Beecher and Tom Dugan.

In "Laugh It Off" the vivacious actress is seen as the pretty girl who joins forces with Downs to help a group of down-and-out former show-girls make good as swing dancers in a Broadway night club.

MEMORY OF LOVED ONE IS CLEVERLY HANDED IN FILM—

A girl, a man and a vision comprise what is probably the screen's strangest romantic triangle.

The girl is Priscilla Lane. The man is Jeffrey Lynn. And the vision is that of John Garfield. "Four Wives," Warner Bros.' sequel to "Four Daughters," is the picture. It will open Sunday at the Joy Theatre.

"Four Daughters" ended with the way apparently smoothed for Lynn and Priscilla to be married and live happily ever afterward. Garfield, Priscilla's first husband in a marriage that proved an unhappy mistake, got himself killed in a traffic crash.

But in "Four Wives," Priscilla is haunted by her memories of Garfield. She is obsessed by the fact that he was a failure and blames herself because a promising career was cut short. She can't rid herself of visions of Garfield as he sat at the piano and played for her one of his own compositions—a melody that had no beginning or end, just a middle.

Thus Garfield's memory is the "menace" of the story. It is perhaps the first time in film history that a vision has been the "other man" in a romantic triangle.

CUMMINGS IS EX-BUS DRIVER—

If Robert Cummings was apprehensive about bus-driving scenes for Universal's "The Under-Pup," coming Tuesday to the Joy Theatre, it was not without reason. A real-life bus driving episode provided him with one of the major scares of his life.

The young actor was formerly a driver on a 170-mile bus run in Colorado. Outstanding event in this period of his career took place when his bus became the setting for a blessed event.

Cummings is seen as bus-driver and athletic director at a summer camp in "The Under-Pup." Nan Grey and Gloria Jean have other starring roles.

A COMEDY WITH MUSIC—

Deanna Durbin starring in "First Love," a comedy with music, with the help of servants becomes a modern cinderella. She is dressed in a ball where she meets prince charming. The cast in addition to Deanna includes Helen Parrish, Robert Stack and Eugene Pallette.

V. M. S. HAS PARTY; PEANUT LODGED IN DOY'S LUNG

(Omitted last week.)
MIST—(Special to The Eagle)—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lousenault was taken to Clatskanie Tuesday evening with what was thought pneumonia, but on arriving at the doctor's office, it was found a peanut had lodged in the little fellow's lung. He was taken to Portland immediately. We have not heard the latest report.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Trotter and Ayla from Elsie spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dowling.

Signs of spring seem in evidence: bonfires at the Wikstrom, Larson and DeRock places; Mrs. Keaton working among her flower beds; Mrs. Bridgers pruning hedge and trimming the lawn.

Marion Loudon from upon the Mountain was a Saturday night guest of Goldie Keaton.

Sunday visitors to spend the day at the William Bridger's home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waggle and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowman from Portland.

Miss Goldie Keaton and Miss Elaine Loudon were in Clatskanie Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Banzer was in Clatskanie Saturday.

Mrs. Merlin Bporkie called on Mrs. A. R. Melis Tuesday afternoon.

The L. Wikstrom family were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when four of Mr. Wikstrom's nephews arrived for a short stop-over on their way from California en route home in Missouri. Mr. Wikstrom had never seen the boys before although they were grown men; they left Monday afternoon for their home in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sundland were Portland visitors Saturday.

Kenneth Wilson went to work Monday after several week's illness but got worse and had to go back on the sick list again.

Mrs. Gunner Larson from Tidewater and Mrs. Newton Trotter from Elsie spent Tuesday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Austin Dowling.

Mrs. C. O. Hayden is doing some spring papering and painting on her home.

Mrs. Harvey Bagle from Sequim,

Washington and son, Eugene Rasmussen, of the navy spent the week-end with Mrs. Bogle's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson. Mrs. Bogle returned Monday to her home and Eugene took the stage at Portland for San Francisco to join his ship.

George Jones was a Clatskanie visitor Saturday.

Donald Sundland was a Seaside visitor Sunday as were Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Bjoerie and Eugene Rasmussen.

Mrs. H. M. Reynolds and Billie were in Clatskanie Saturday afternoon.

The annual birthday dinner of the "Birthday Pals" in the W. M. S. was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. R. Mills on the Fishhawk. A lovely dinner and a social good time before and after the business session were enjoyed.

The next regular meeting will be the second Wednesday of the month at Mrs. I. E. Knowles' home.
