Eagle Items Of Past Years

ONE YEAR AGO—

L. H. Dewey, manager of Miller's Mercantile, announced a contest the winner of which would be awarded a trip to the San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition.

Completion of the cold storage plant was nearing with the date for its opening set for May 15 by Oliver Graves, owner.

FIVE YEARS AGO—

George H. Brown was elected president of the Vernonia Towns-club, H. S. Strong, vice president and Mrs. A. E. Jennings, secretary-treasurer.

Fred Lumm was elected president of the Northwest Council of Loggers, Sawmill and Woodworkers' unions at a conference in Aberdeen, Washington.

TEN YEARS AGO—

Word was received here by Postmaster Messing from the postal department in Washington, D. C., that city mail delivery service was to be started in Vernonia on or before July 1.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—

By a vote of 95 to 27 the people at a special election voted to raise money by general obligation bonds to pave intersections on Bridge street. It is hoped that arrangements can be completed so that actual paving will start the first of May.

William Pringle resigned as constable for this district and the county clerk has sent the appointment to W. J. Kelly, city marshal.

Eighty-three percent of the pedestrians killed in traffic accidents in the state of Oregon during January were victims of crashes which occurred after dark, it was announced today by Earl Snell, secretary of state, who said that of the 12 pedestrians killed during the month, only two were hit during daylight hours.

Forty-one percent of the pedestrian deaths resulted from accidents which occurred between the hours of 5 and 7 p. m. This period proved a dangerous time or all types of accidents with 33 percent of the total deaths for the month resulting from accidents in that time period.

The hour from 5 to 6 p. m. saw the greatest number of accidents in any one-hour period during the month with 254 crashes resulting in three deaths and 33 persons injured.

 Clark. Grain-fed steers were a rarity on the Portland market, when the club boys and girls begin to exhibit such animals. Now the market is demanding more and more grain-fed beef the year around. "Club work is entitled to great credit for thus helping change the program of feeding and marketing in a major industry, and thus creating a new market for our grain and hay, and, incidentally, making some mighty good jobs side hill where it has been planted for 22 years and where the stock has not pastured it very much. On the more level ground on the same pasture, however, the tall oat grass seemed to have been killed out as it does not stand pasturing well.

Long-life grasses are important in the development of pasture on logged-off land in Columbia county, and Chewing's fescue seems to be one that gives evidence of being a long-life grass and forms dense sod to compete against fern. It is also a palatable grass that is well
